The Collect of the Day

O God, the Creator and Redeemer of all them that believe: grant unto the souls of thy servants and handmaidens the remission of all their sins, that as they have ever desired thy merciful pardon, so by the supplications of their brethren they may receive the same; Who livest and reignest with the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost ever one God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Epistle (sit) I Corinthians 15:51-57

Brethren, behold, I show you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For the corruptible must be put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written:

“ Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?” The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gradual and Tract (stand)

Gradual Hymn #620..... Land of Rest

The Holy Gospel John 5:24-27

Jesus said, “Truly, truly I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself, and has given him authority to execute judgement, because he is the Son of man. Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in tombs will hear his voice and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgement."

The Sermon (sit) The Rev Christopher C. Stainbrook

The Litany of the Departed (stand)

THE ABSOLUTION OF THE DEAD (stand)

The Celebrant and other ministers take their places at the altar while the Libera me is sung.

Deliver me, O Lord, from death eternal in that day tremendous: When the heavens and the earth must pass away: When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. Trembling laid hold on me, and fearfulness, while I await the shifting and the coming anger. When the heavens and the earth must pass away. Day of mourning, day of anger, of calamity and misery, that great day and exceeding bitter. When thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord: and let light perpetual shine upon them.

Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison.

Our Father:

V. And lead us not into temptation.

R. But delivery us from evil.

V. From the gate of hell.

R. Deliver their soul, O Lord.

V. Mat they rest in peace.

R. Amen.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

The Priest sings the following Collect:

Absolve, we beseech thee, O Lord, the souls of thy servants from every bond of sin: that they may be raised up among thy Saints and elect, and live again in the glory of the resurrection. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

V. May they rest in peace.

R. Amen.

The Priest then says:

May the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
