All Saints' Sunday ~ Year B

1st Reading: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

Then I saw another angel ascend from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea, saying, “Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God upon their foreheads.” And I heard the number of the sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand sealed, out of every tribe of the sons of Israel. After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude which no man could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb!” And all the angels stood round the throne and round the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, “Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.” Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, clothed in white robes, and whence have they come?” I said to him, “Sir, you know.” And he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 24:1BC-2, 3-4AB, 5-6

The People sing the Responses:

Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The LORD's are the earth and its fullness;
the world and those who dwell in it.
For he founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Who can ascend the mountain of the LORD?

or who may stand in his holy place?

One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean,
who desires not what is vain.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

He shall receive a blessing from the LORD,
a reward from God his savior.

Such is the race that seeks him,
that seeks the face of the God of Jacob.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; it does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. And every one who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12A

Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down his disciples came to him. And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when men revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Congratulations to all those who were baptized today, All Saints Day. Bringing new Christians into the Catholic Church is one of the primary (if not the primary) reasons for the Church's existence. Please welcome these new souls into Christ's One, Holy, Roman, Catholic and Apostolic Church.
- ❑ The annual St. Timothy's All Souls' Day Solemn Requiem Mass is tomorrow, November 2nd, at 7PM. Following mass a reception will be held in the cafeteria. St. Timothy's may be the only Catholic Church in the Diocese (or even the State of Texas) to use the traditional Catafalque at our All Souls' Day mass. Remembrance forms are available from the ushers. You may place them in offering basket or mail to the church.
- ❑ Welcome back Father John Cornelius. Fr. John and his family have returned to the area (Alvarado) after serving as the priest for our Ordinariate Church in Rochester, New York until he retired last summer. He looks forward to assisting at Fr. Stainbrook at Sunday Mass. Please welcome Father and Sharyl (and daughters Sarah and Becky) back to Texas and to St. Timothy's.
- ❑ The Autumn Season is a time to reinstitute our St. Timothy's Altar Guild. This important Guild cleans and polishes the chalices, candlesticks, thuribles (incense holders) and launders the linens, albs and cottas used by the Clergy and Altar Servers at Mass. Recently, we've noticed that our vessels don't shine as they should and our vestments are not as "glistening" (to use the old definition) white as they could be. Both Women AND Men are invited to consider enrolling in the Altar Guild and help make St. Timothy's (literally) shine! Please see Father Stainbrook for more information.
- ❑ The Autumn Season is also a good time to recruit more Altar Servers. We welcome our new servers, Tanner Whitham and Tom Acker, but we can always use more! Please see Acolyte Master, Chris Christian if you can assist.

- ❑ St. Timothy's Holiday Outreach at Union Gospel Mission (UGM) - The UGM has informed us that they only have four senior ladies now (the often neglected group of residents whom we have chosen to support) and don't expect to have any more before Christmas. That means we should have more participation for their "guests". You can bring socks to Mass whenever you want. Judy Grimada will keep them, and take all our donations to the Mission. We need to have them by December 13 so we can get them all packaged and delivered on December 21. If anyone would like to make a bag for one of the senior ladies, let Judy know. Since there are only four, if you would like to bring gifts for a bag to her, she will have bags and put everything in them. Or if you would prefer you can do your own thing and put your bag together yourself. Donations of money for food can be given to Judy, or Carol Christian, our treasurer at anytime. In the past we have had good participation with this Holiday Outreach and the Mission is very appreciative of our help. Thank you in advance for your help.

Judy Grimada, St. Timothy's Outreach Coordinator

Important Ordinariate News - - Many thanks to everyone who contributed to the new Altar Missal for St. Timothy's. On Advent 1, November 28, all Ordinariate churches all over the world will begin using the new Missals.

Will this change our mass? NO! The Mass will remain as it has since we became Catholic in 2012; however, at the direction of the Chancery, this will eliminate our pew booklets. With the publication of the Divine Worship Missal, the Ordinariates' form of the one, holy Mass will be copyrighted. Therefore, we will no longer be permitted to publish every word that is spoken or sung during our worship. Those of you who regularly attend Solemn Mass at St. Timothy's know that heretofore we have made participation in the liturgy very "user-friendly" by including in our Mass booklet almost everything that's said at Mass. What will be published starting in December will be a modified version of the service leaflet/bulletin we currently use. The prayers that the celebrant offers by himself on behalf of the worshippers will not be printed. There is at the moment no Peoples Missal/prayer book available for us to offer Divine Worship devotions privately. For further explanation, please contact the Vicar General's Office at the Chancery in Houston.
