Ascension

1st Reading: Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God. And while staying with them he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me, for John baptized with water, but before many days you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit." So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth." And when he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 47:2, 2, 6-9

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.
All you peoples, clap your hands,

shout to God with cries of gladness,
For the LORD, the Most High, the awesome,
is the great king over all the earth.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy;
the LORD, amid trumpet blasts.
Sing praise to God, sing praise;
sing praise to our king, sing praise.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

For king of all the earth is God;
sing hymns of praise.

God reigns over the nations,
God sits upon his holy throne.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

The Epistle: Ephesians 1:17-23

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe, according to the working of his great might which he accomplished in Christ when he raised him from the dead and made him sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come; and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. And when they saw him they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age." Praise be to Thee O Christ.

- ◇ Severe floods have hit Croatia, Serbia and the Balkins this week, affecting friends close to home. Several villages have declared emergency situations following floods across Croatia. The Mura, Sava, Sutla, Kupa and Lonja rivers have all flooded with Sava, which runs through Zagreb, rising to 15 feet near the capital, the highest it has been in the last 50 years. What does this mean for us at St. Timothy's? The hardworking custodian at our host parish of St. Mary's, Zoran Radon, (whom many of our people have met) has told us that his father's home (the home where he grew up) has been completely destroyed by the floods. Croatia does not offer Flood Insurance, so the Radon family (along with thousands of others) have lost everything. St. Mary's is taking up a special collection this Sunday and next week to help the people of Zoran's village. St. Timothy's parishioners are invited to participate in this assistance. Last week our generous parishioners donated $85 to Croatian relief -- the Radon family, and the Parish of St. Mary's Thanks you very much. To contribute, one can put a check made out to "St. Mary of the Assumption" in the collection basket (please write "Flood Assistance" or "Zoran" in the memo section of the check), or one can bring a contribution to the business office at the church during the week. The money will be sent to the local parish church for distribution to those in need. Thank you and God bless you!

- ◇ Also, despite the recent rains in the DFW areas, parts of the Diocese and particularly the Wichita Falls areas are in severe drought conditions. The Diocese asks that parishes offer prayers for rain during the Prayers of the Faithful.
- ◇ June 14-26, 2014 - A series of workshops for Catholics seeking to know and practice their faith with a deeper understanding. Featuring Fr. John Stowe, OFM Conv. in a series of four lectures on "Franciscan Spirituality" at St. Andrew Catholic Church in Fort Worth. More info to come.

Why not go to the Pro Life Boot Camp this summer instead? Boot Camp is a total Pro-Life immersion experience for High School and Homeschooled Students ages 14 to 17. It will be held at the University of Dallas (1845 East Northgate Drive Irving, Texas 75062). Participants are welcome to come for the entire boot camp or just the weekend.
