Ascension ~ Year B

1st Reading: Acts 1:1-11

In the first book, O Theoph'ilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God. And while staying with them he charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me, for John baptized with water, So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samar'ia and to the end of the earth." And when he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."but before many days you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All you peoples, clap your hands,

shout to God with cries of gladness,
For the LORD, the Most High, the awesome,
is the great king over all the earth.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare
of trumpets for the Lord.

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy;
the LORD, amid trumpet blasts.

Sing praise to God, sing praise;
sing praise to our king, sing praise.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare
of trumpets for the Lord.

For king of all the earth is God;
sing hymns of praise.

God reigns over the nations,
God sits upon his holy throne.

R. God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare
of trumpets for the Lord.

The Epistle: Ephesians 1:17-23

That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power in us who believe, according to the working of his great might which he accomplished in Christ when he raised him from the dead and made him sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come; and he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fulness of him who fills all in all.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Announcements

- ❑ Today we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension, the day in which Our Lord was taken up into Heaven (It's also one of the "Glorious Mysteries": of the Rosary).
- ❑ It's time to recruit more altar servers! -- We are blessed to have a small and faithful cadre of men and boys who serve every week, but it is (past) time to get some more helpers. Our servers sometimes wish to sit with their families, and (life being what it is these days) sometimes must work on Sunday afternoons. We want to continue to celebrate Solemn Mass every week (even through the long green summer Sundays) but to accomplish this we need more participants -- if you are willing to serve, please see Acolyte Master, Christopher Shirley after Mass.
- ❑ The month of May is dedicated to Our Blessed Mother. You may have heard your mother or grandmother talk about May crownings; many Catholic parishes still have them. A May crowning is a ceremony in May, a month traditionally dedicated to Mary, in which parishioners (often children) crown a statue of Mary with a wreath of flowers. Catholics began honoring Mary this way in the Middle Ages. By the 19th century, when it became common to assign different Catholic devotions to different months— the Rosary in October, for instance, or the Sacred Heart of Jesus in June— it was only natural to dedicate all of May to Mary. Try putting together a simple May altar in your home this year, with a statue of Mary and a simple vase of fresh flowers—even dandelions or lilacs from your yard, picked by your kids!
- ❑ The Liturgical Color for the Easter Season is White (or Gold) The Church does not want to see the color Red until Pentecost (May 24th) Unfortunately, we have seen the color Red in our account statements this month of May, and we are behind in our expenditures (salaries, printing, office costs, etc).
