Christ the King

1st Reading: Ezekiel 34:11,12,15-17

“For thus says the Lord God: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As a shepherd seeks out his flock when some of his sheep have been scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the crippled, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will watch over; I will feed them in justice. “As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord God: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, rams and he-goats.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 23:1-3,5,6

The People sing the Responses:

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Beside restful waters he leads me;

he refreshes my soul.

He guides me in right paths

for his name's sake.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me

in the sight of my foes;

you anoint my head with oil;

my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26,28

But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things under him, that God may be everything to every one. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 25:31-46

“When the Son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. Then the King will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.’ Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see thee hungry and feed thee, or thirsty and give thee drink? And when did we see thee a stranger and welcome thee, or naked and clothe thee? And when did we see thee sick or in prison and visit thee?’ And the King will answer them, ‘Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.’ Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see thee hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to thee?’ Then he will answer them, ‘Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.’ And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

❑ It's Stewardship Month at St. Timothy's!

Saint Timothy's needs your Stewardship this year, as we do every year. It makes possible the sacramental life and our internal and external ministries by paying the bills. Saint Timothy's needs a portion of your economic resources – as well as your volunteer help. Over the next few weeks, different parishioners will talk about what St. Timothy's means to them, and why Stewardship is important. On December 7th, the same Sunday as our famous Chili Cook-off, we will collect our pledge cards for the upcoming year. We have provided a “Table of Proportional Giving” in the back of the Church today – The goal, the ideal, is that every Christian try to tithe, that is, give your first fruits, ten percent to the Lord. Saint Timothy's does not necessarily ask the entire ten percent, but that you give maybe five or six percent to the parish and the other five percent to other charities such as the Union Gospel Mission, the Red Cross, or Catholic Charities. The Church understands that personal circumstances might change. You might lose a job or suffer some setback. Maybe in that case, the parish will need to help you.

- ❑ Starting today Stewardship Pledge Cards will be available from the ushers as well as the church office.
- ❑ It's time to begin our preparations for our Christmas Outreach efforts to the Union Gospel Mission. Those wishing to help, please see Judy or Marshelle Langston (outreach coordinator).

⇒ Please see the Chili Cook-Off coverage on the back page. ⇐

William (Bill) Morgan Vann, Jr., 89, the father of Bishop Kevin Vann of Orange, California, and former bishop of Fort Worth, died peacefully at St. John's Hospice in Springfield, Illinois, at midnight on Nov. 13. Mass of Christian Burial was last Saturday with Bishop Vann celebrating. He will be buried with military honors at Calvary Cemetery.

Rest Eternal Grant Unto Him, O Lord and May Light Perpetual Shine Upon Him.

- ❑ From the Catholic Church Women at St. Timothy's: The annual St. Timothy's Chili Cook off is only a few weeks away! This year the theme will be "St. Nicholas - the real Santa Claus". The Parish Council decided that the annual chili cook off will be held on Sunday December 7 (our regular 1st Sunday of the month Potluck day.) Those who want to enter chili cook off to make chili, please contact event coordinator Judy Grimada. The entry fee is $7.50. (This helps to pay for trophies.) As usual, there will be a prize for the best themed entry and of course first place trophy for the best chili. The Catholic Church Women are asked to provide desserts, so if you are willing to make a dessert, please let Judy know. Special Note from Judy: All Parishioners and friends of St. Timothy's who are going to enter chili cook off, please let me know. So far we have three entries -- and they are all girls. Where are you guys? Time to step up!

The Feast of Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as an antidote to secularism, a way of life which leaves God out of man's thinking and living and organizes his life as if God did not exist. The feast is intended to proclaim in a striking and effective manner Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments, and nations. Today's Mass establishes the titles for Christ's royalty over men: 1) Christ is God, the Creator of the universe and hence wields a supreme power over all things; "All things were created by Him"; 2) Christ is our Redeemer, He purchased us by His precious Blood, and made us His property and possession; 3) Christ is Head of the Church, "holding in all things the primacy"; 4) God bestowed upon Christ the nations of the world as His special possession and dominion.
