Sunday of Devine Mercy

1st Reading: Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

The People sing the Responses:

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 118: 2-4, 13-15, 22-24

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
his love is ev - er - last - ing.

R/ (1) Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

Let the house of Aaron say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

Let those who fear the LORD say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

R/ Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the LORD helped me.

My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.

The joyful shout of victory in the tents of the just:

R/ Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

This is the day the LORD has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.

R/ Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The Epistle: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. What we used to call "Low Sunday" or the Sunday after Easter when we were Episcopalians, is Divine Mercy Sunday in the Catholic Church. Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Sunday after Easter, the Octave of Easter. It is originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Saint Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her encounter with Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Church.
- ❑ Recognizing that Blessed John XXIII and John Paul II have widespread reputations for holiness and that years of studying their lives and actions have proven their exceptional virtue, Pope Francis announced he would declare his two predecessors saints at a single ceremony today, April 27. Cardinal Angelo Amato, prefect of the Congregation for Saints' Causes, read the biographies and highlighted the "service to peace" and the impact both popes had "inside and outside the Christian community" at times of great cultural, political and religious transformation. The testimonies of their lives, "completely dedicated to proclaiming the Gospel, shine in the church and reverberate in the history of the world as examples of hope and light," the cardinal said.

As we have mentioned in the past, creating a safe environment for children and young people is a diocesan priority for Fort Worth. The Ordinariate has also stressed that creating a safe environment for our people is our priority as well. Article 12 of the US Bishops' document, The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, requires U.S. dioceses to establish "safe environment programs" and gives the necessary elements of these programs. Debbie Alavarez, the Business manager at St. Mary's, is qualified to conduct Safe Environment Training Sessions. It is very important that St. Timothy's take these sessions seriously, and that as many of our people as possible attend them. Our Parish Safe Environment Program will be conducted by Debbie next Sunday, May 4th after the 2 p.m. Mass. Lunch will be provided. -- it's like our regular potluck, but there is no cooking involved!

- ❑ Talking about money is perhaps the least attractive aspect of the job for a pastor, but talk about it we must.

Since our move from 4201 Mitchell Blvd. two years ago to our present home on Magnolia Avenue, our attendance has remained steady (for which we Thank God for your faithfulness) but our collections continue to be somewhat below what they should be.

Our Easter Attendance last Sunday was a record -- but the collection was surprisingly low for such an important celebration.

While our hosts at St. Mary's underwrite the utility costs, we still have to pay salaries, pensions (on which we are very much in arrears) the Assessment to the Ordinariate (on which we are also in arrears) printing, supplies, vestments, and other expenses which allow our congregation to flourish. Also, we need to start saving some revenue to begin a building fund for our future.

Bishop Olson has indicated to Father Stainbrook just last week that he is receptive -- indeed supportive -- to our going forward to be all we can be at St. Timothy's, but we MUST be able to show both the Diocese of Fort Worth and the Ordinariate Authorities that we can carry our own water before we can obtain permission to move.

To repeat -- the Authorities - both Diocesan and Ordinariate - over us are receptive and encouraging -- it is up to US on when we can move forward.

Therefore, we ask you to please be as generous as you can in supporting our church.

Welcome Visitor

We are glad you chose to worship with us today. We trust that your visit here was spiritually enriching and that you were warmly received. Please come again.
