Priest: Pray, brethren, that our Sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the Almighty Father.

*O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.*

R/ Lord, you will show us the path of life.

I bless the LORD who counsels me;

even in the night my heart exhorts me.

I set the LORD ever before me;

with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R/ Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,

my body, too, abides in confidence;

*because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.*

R/ Lord, you will show us the path of life.

You will show me the path to life,

abounding joy in your presence,

the delights at your right hand forever.

R/ Lord, you will show us the path of life.

The Epistle: 1 Peter 1: 17-21

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ As we have mentioned in the past, creating a safe environment for children and young people is a diocesan priority for Fort Worth. The Ordinariate has also stressed that creating a safe environment for our people is our priority as well. Article 12 of the US Bishops' document, The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, requires U.S. dioceses to establish "safe environment programs" and gives the necessary elements of these programs. Debbie Alavarez, the Business manager at St. Mary's, is qualified to conduct Safe Environment Training Sessions. It is very important that St. Timothy's take these sessions seriously, and that as many of our people as possible attend them.

Our Parish Safe Environment Program will be conducted by Debbie today after the 2 p.m. Mass. Lunch will be provided.

Parish Personal: Congratulations to Shar and Perc Purcell on the birth of their new great grandson, Lee Andrew. Mother and baby are doing well.

Welcome Visitor

We are glad you chose to worship with us today. We trust that your visit here was spiritually enriching and that you were warmly received. Please come again.

Talking about money is perhaps the least attractive aspect of the job for a pastor, but talk about it we must. Since our move from 4201 Mitchell Blvd. two years ago to our present home on Magnolia Avenue, our attendance has remained steady (for which we Thank God for your faithfulness) but our collections continue to be somewhat below what they should be.

Our Easter Attendance last Sunday was a record -- but the collection was surprisingly low for such an important celebration.

While our hosts at St. Mary's underwrite the utility costs, we still have to pay salaries, pensions (on which we are very much in arrears) the Assessment to the Ordinariate (on which we are also in arrears) printing, supplies, vestments, and other expenses which allow our congregation to flourish. Also, we need to start saving some revenue to begin a building fund for our future.

Bishop Olson has indicated to Father Stainbrook just last week that he is receptive - - indeed supportive -- to our going forward to be all we can be at St. Timothy's, but we MUST be able to show both the Diocese of Fort Worth and the Ordinariate Authorities that we can carry our own water before we can obtain permission to move.

To repeat -- the Authorities - both Diocesan and Ordinariate - over us are receptive and encouraging -- it is up to US on when we can move forward. Therefore, we ask you to please be as generous as you can in supporting our church.
