Fifth Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts 6:1-7

Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, the Hellenists murmured against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution. And the twelve summoned the body of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. Therefore, brethren, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint to this duty. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." And what they said pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands upon them. And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the faith.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19

R/ (22) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Exult, you just, in the LORD;
praise from the upright is fitting.

Give thanks to the LORD on the harp;
with the ten-stringed lyre chant his praises.

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The Epistle: 1 Peter 2: 4-9

Come to him, to that living stone, rejected by men but in God's sight chosen and precious; and like living stones be yourselves built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture: "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and he who believes in him will not be put to shame." To you therefore who believe, he is precious, but for those who do not believe, "The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner," and "A stone that will make men stumble, a rock that will make them fall"; for they stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, * that you may declare the wonderful deeds of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 14:1-12

"Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also; henceforth you know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and we shall be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father; how can you say, 'Show us the Father? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me; or else believe me for the sake of the works themselves. "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I go to the Father. Praise be to Thee O Christ.

Announcements

- ◇ Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord (June 1, 2014). Gladden us with holy joys, almighty God, and make us rejoice with devout thanksgiving, for the Ascension of Christ your Son is our exaltation, and, where the Head has gone before in glory, the Body is called to follow in hope. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. (Collect). In the Diocese of Fort Worth, as in most Catholic dioceses in the United States, the Solemnity of the Ascension is celebrated on the 7th Sunday of Easter. Saturday evening Masses, May 31, should use the Vigil Mass for the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord. At both the Vigil Mass and the Mass of the day, when the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer 1) is used the proper form of the Communicants is said. A Solemn Blessing for the Ascension may be found with other Solemn Blessings in the Missal. On Thursday, May 29, the Mass for Thursday of the 6th week of Easter is used.
- ◇ Diocese and St. Sophia's Prayer of the Faithful Requests. The Ukrainian American Society of Texas and St. Sophia Ukrainian Catholic Church, a parish of Eparchy of Chicago located in The Colony, have asked parishes of the Diocese to pray for the people of Ukraine during the current difficult times. Here is the web site to learn more about Saint Sophia's -- (they have a lot in common with us at St. Timothy's -- they are part of the Catholic Church but have retained much of their historic liturgy and polity, just as we have in the Ordinariate. www.stsophiaukrainian.cc
- ◇ Also, despite the recent rains in the DFW areas, parts of the Diocese and particularly the Wichita Falls areas are in severe drought conditions. The Diocese asks that parishes offer prayers for rain during the Prayers of the Faithful.
- ◇ Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference (DCYC) Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference - July 11-13, 2014. The Annual Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference (DCYC) is a dynamic weekend held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel at DFW Airport. This conference offers youth a variety of exciting opportunities such as: Daily Mass, keynote presentations from nationally known speakers, workshops to deepen faith and build life skills, a music ministry pre-conference, Adoration, hands on activities, service experiences, games, dancing and more...with a thousand other Catholic youth! This year's theme is "Transform me." Don't miss out on this amazing opportunity!

- ◇ June 14-26, 2014 - A series of workshops for Catholics seeking to know and practice their faith with a deeper understanding. Featuring Fr. John Stowe, OFM Conv. in a series of four lectures on "Franciscan Spirituality" at St. Andrew Catholic Church in Fort Worth. More info to come.
- ◇ Pro-Life Boot Camp - June 27-29, 2014 (Session One) - July 25-29, 2014 (Session Two). Boot Camp is a total Pro-Life immersion experience for High School and Homeschooled Students ages 14 to 17. It will be held at the University of Dallas (1845 East Northgate Drive Irving, Texas 75062). Participants are welcome to come for the entire boot camp or just the weekend. The Registration Deadlines are June 20th (Session One) and July 18th (Session Two). We hope to see you there!

Parish Personals:

Prayers are asked for Dee Honea, who has been released from the Cleburne Hospital. Father Stainbrook visited her last week and celebrated the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Holy Unction at her bedside. Please pray for her relatives, the Honea and Langston families, at this time as well.

Please continue to pray for Brad and Jennifer Smith's baby boy, Luke Bradley who is recovering at home, and for Amanda and Tony Terice who are recovering from visits to the Hospital this week, as well.

Welcome Visitor

We are glad you chose to worship with us today. We trust that your visit here was spiritually enriching and that you were warmly received. Please come again.
