Easter Sunday

Old Testament Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

The People sing the Responses:

R/ (24) This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.

Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

“The right hand of the LORD has struck with power;
the right hand of the LORD is exalted.

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.”

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The Epistle: 2 Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ We extend a warm welcome to all our visitors today. Guidelines for receiving communion in the Catholic Church may be found on Page 35 of the mass booklet.
- ❑ Many, many thanks to everyone who worked so hard to continue our traditional Palm Sunday Procession even under difficult circumstances. God smiled upon us at St. Timothy's once again, and the rain stopped before the Procession began. Special thanks to Kay Christian for making a new canopy frame and poles, Judy Grimada for making new banners, Shar Purcell for fitting all the children in cassocks and cottas, and "Passion Singers", Mark Stewart, Chris Christian and Christopher Bartz.
- ❑ Also, many thanks to trumpeter, Jacob Groening (Father Bristow's nephew) for his performance at the opening procession.
- ❑ Union Gospel Mission Update: From Lent Outreach coordinator (Easter baskets at the Union Gospel Mission), Judy Grimada. "All the Easter baskets are finished for the Union Gospel Mission. The people of St. Timothy were their usual generous selves with their time and their money. Many thanks for generosity of St. Tim's folks for money and baskets. Special thanks to Sue, Sheila, Emma and Erin coming to help put them all together."
- ❑ Fr. Stainbrook will take a few days off this week. There will be no mass or class Wednesday, April 23rd.
- ❑ A reminder that our St. Timothy's Prayer List is maintained by Ann Kleinert. If you have changes/additions/deletions for the prayer list please contact Ann (817-536-6682) on or before Thursday of each week. Prayer list request cards are available from Ann or the ushers. Also, items for inclusion in the weekly bulletin announcements should be submitted to Fr. Stainbrook on or before Thursday of each week.
- ❑ As we have mentioned in the past, creating a safe environment for children and young people is a diocesan priority for Fort Worth. The Ordinariate has also stressed that creating a safe environment for our people is our priority as well.

Article 12 of the US Bishops' document, The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, requires U.S. dioceses to establish "safe environment programs" and gives the necessary elements of these programs. Debbie Alavarez, the Business manager at St. Mary's, is qualified to conduct Safe Environment Training Sessions. It is very important that St. Timothy's take these sessions seriously, and that as many of our people as possible attend them. Our Parish Safe Environment Program will be conducted by Debbie on May 4th after the 2 p.m. Mass. Lunch will be provided. -- it's like our regular potluck, but there is no cooking involved!
