Solemn Mass – April 30, 2017

The order of service for the Mass is found in the Worship Manual.

Vidi Aquam (stand)

I beheld water which proceeded from the temple, on the right side thereof, alleluia: and all they to whom that water came were healed every one, and they say alleluia, alleluia.

*O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth forever. Glory be to the gather, and to the Son, the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.*

3rd Sunday of Easter ~ Year A

Old Testament Reading: Acts 2:14, 22-33

But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. “Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs which God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know — this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. But God raised him up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. For David says concerning him, ‘I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will dwell in hope. For thou wilt not abandon my soul to Hades, nor let thy Holy One see corruption. Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou wilt make me full of gladness with thy presence.’ “Brethren, I may say to you confidently of the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you see and hear. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 6:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

The People Say the Responses.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Keep me, O God, for in you I take refuge;

I say to the LORD, "My LORD are you."

O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup,
you it is who hold fast my lot.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

I bless the LORD who counsels me;
even in the night my heart exhorts me.

I set the LORD ever before me;
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices,
my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

You will show me the path to life,
abounding joy in your presence,
the delights at your right hand forever.

R. Lord, you will show us the path of life.

The Epistle: 1 Peter 1:17-21

And if you invoke as Father him who judges each one impartially according to his deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile. 18 You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your fathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. 20 He was destined before the foundation of the world but was made manifest at the end of the times for your sake. 21 Through him you have confidence in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: See separate insert.

The Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

That very day two of them were going to a village named Emma'us, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them. But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What is this conversation which you are holding with each other as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, named Cle'opas, answered him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since this happened. Moreover, some women of our company amazed us. They were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; and they came back saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb, and found it just as the women had said; but him they did not see." And he said to them, "O foolish men, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" And beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He appeared to be going further, but they constrained him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened and they recognized him; and he vanished out of their sight. They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the scriptures?" And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven gathered together and those who were with them, who said, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Through your prayers and stewardship, we can help our seminarians give their lives to Christ. Can you give to those who have generously responded to serve us? Your gift to the Seminary Formation Fund will aid the men preparing to become faithful, holy priests of the Ordinariate. Support the Seminary Formation Fund Second Collection at all Ordinariate Parishes & Parochial Communities.

May 6-7, 2017.

- ❑ On behalf of the Parish Council and the people of St. Timothy's Catholic Church, we offer a huge thank you to the clergy, staff, and the people of St. Mary of the Assumption for being our host parish since January of 2012. We realize our journey has been long and their generosity and understanding is greatly appreciated by us all. With the support of St. Mary's and the Diocese of Fort Worth, especially Bishop Michael Olson, we have been able to continue our strong catholic traditions in a most beautiful setting.

May God bless St. Mary of the Assumption for all your help.
