Easter 3 ~ Year B

1st Reading: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. “And now, brethren, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

The People sing the Responses:

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

When I call, answer me, O my just God,
you who relieve me when I am in distress;
have pity on me, and hear my prayer!

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

Know that the LORD does wonders for his faithful one;
the LORD will hear me when I call upon him.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

O LORD, let the light of your countenance shine upon us!
You put gladness into my heart.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

As soon as I lie down, I fall peacefully asleep,
for you alone, O LORD,
bring security to my dwelling.

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

The Epistle: 1 John 2:1-5A

My little children, I am writing this to you so that you may not sin; but if any one does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the expiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. And by this we may be sure that we know him, if we keep his commandments. He who says "I know him" but disobeys his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him; but whoever keeps his word, in him truly love for God is perfected.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Luke 24:35-48

Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread. As they were saying this, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace to you." But they were startled and frightened, and supposed that they saw a spirit. And he said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do questionings rise in your hearts? See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; handle me, and see; for a spirit has not flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate before them. Then he said to them, "These are my words which I spoke to you, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ The May Parish Potluck will be the 1st Sunday of the month, May 3rd, following the 2 p.m. Solemn Mass, Mark your calendars now and plan to enjoy food and fellowship with your friends at St. Timothy's on May 3rd. Father Stainbrook and Parish Council President, Carl McNiell have both expressed concern regarding the unexpectedly lower numbers at the April Pot Luck last week. These Pot Luck lunches are intended to be enjoyable occasions for fellowship and socializing, but if they are onerous to prepare for, or no longer enjoyable to attend, please let any member of the Parish Council know.

Last Thursday, April 16th, was the 88th birthday of Pope (Emeritus) Benedict XVI. Happy 88th Birthday dearest Pope Benedict ! You are, and always will be, our most beloved Pope who created the Ordinariates for us, and welcomed us (and our Patrimony) home to the Universal Church. Without your love and care in creating the Ordinariate, St. Timothy's would not exist in our present form -- St. Timothy's is now fully, proudly, truly, and joyfully Catholic, and also able to retain all the essential elements of our "anglo Catholic" past, thanks to you! Happy Happy birthday!
