Easter Sunday ~ Year B

1st Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.” Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.

Let the house of Israel say,
“His mercy endures forever.”

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

“The right hand of the LORD has struck with power;
the right hand of the LORD is exalted.

I shall not die, but live,
and declare the works of the LORD.”

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

R/ This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The Epistle: Colossians 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ We extend a warm welcome to all our visitors today. Guidelines for receiving communion in the Catholic Church may be found on page 35 of the mass booklet.
- ❑ The Parish Office will be closed tomorrow, April 6th, (NOT for Father Stainbrook's birthday, but to allow the staff to rest after Easter!) and also on Tuesday April 7th. We will have our regular Wednesday Mass at 9:30 a.m. followed by Bible Study on April 8th.
- ❑ Many thanks to everyone who worked so hard to continue our traditional Palm Sunday Procession even under difficult circumstances. The result was great!
- ❑ Union Gospel Mission Update! This is what was delivered to the Union Gospel Mission by the folks from St. Timothy's:

37 Easter baskets

16 gift bags for the Senior ladies

26 bags for parents of children

200 bags of goodies for them to hand out to street people.

This was an ambitious undertaking for such a small group, but as usual my church friends and my family came thru. Thanks to all for monetary donations, baking cookies, wrapping bags, putting Easter baskets together, donations of candy, Easter grass and other items for baskets. .... Judy Grimada

- ❑ Parish Potluck Returns April 12th, the Sunday after Easter or "Divine Mercy Sunday". Mark your calendars now and plan to enjoy food and fellowship with your friends at St. Timothy's on April 12th. Remember, the more people who attend the potluck, the more fun (and food!) is enjoyed by all!!

 Jesus Christ is Risen!
Happy Easter!

Parish Personals:

St. Timothy's extends sympathy to Tony Moralez whose brother-in-law, Albert Perez entered Life Eternal last week. Albert was a faithful Catholic and his Requiem was last Tuesday at All Saints Catholic Church.

✠ May his Soul and the Souls of all the Faithful Departed Rest In Peace ✠

Dee Honea has been released from Scott and White Hospital in Temple, Texas and has returned home. Please keep her and the family in prayer.

Ann Kleinert is not feeling 100%, and has not been able to attend Sunday Mass for a few weeks. She would appreciate the prayers and good wishes of her St. Timothy's family as she regathers her strength.
