Eighth Sunday after Epiphany

Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 49:14-15

Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me; my LORD has forgotten me.” Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you. Response: Thanks be to God.

The People sing the Responses:

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 62: 2-3, 6-7, 8-9

Music: © 2013 Royce Nickel. Licensed in the Creative Commons by-nc-nd 3.0

R/ (6a) Rest in God alone, my soul.

Only in God is my soul at rest;
from him comes my salvation.
He only is my rock and my salvation,
my stronghold; I shall not be disturbed at all.

R/ Rest in God alone, my soul.

Only in God be at rest, my soul,
for from him comes my hope.
He only is my rock and my salvation,
my stronghold; I shall not be disturbed.

R/ Rest in God alone, my soul.

With God is my safety and my glory,
he is the rock of my strength; my refuge is in God.
Trust in him at all times, O my people!
Pour out your hearts before him.

R/ Rest in God alone, my soul.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 4:1-5

Brothers and sisters: Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is of course required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. It does not concern me in the least that I be judged by you or any human tribunal; I do not even pass judgment on myself; I am not conscious of anything against me, but I do not thereby stand acquitted; the one who judges me is the Lord. Therefore do not make any judgment before the appointed time, until the Lord comes, for he will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will manifest the motives of our hearts, and then everyone will receive praise from God. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: (stand) Matthew 6:24-34

Jesus said to his disciples: "No one can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you more important than they? Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span? Why are you anxious about clothes? Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith? So do not worry and say, 'What are we to eat?' or 'What are we to drink?' or 'What are we to wear?' All these things the pagans seek. Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides. Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself. Sufficient for a day is its own evil."

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

As a reminder, St. Timothy's is a fully Roman Catholic Congregation, and that receiving communion at this mass satisfies the obligation for all Catholics. Please refer to the "Guidelines for receiving Holy Communion" on page 31 of the mass booklet.

Announcements

- ❑ As we have mentioned for the past several weeks, creating a safe environment for children and young people is a diocesan priority for Fort Worth. The Ordinariate has also stressed that creating a safe environment for our people is our priority as well. Article 12 of the US Bishops' document, The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, requires U.S. dioceses to establish "safe environment programs" and gives the necessary elements of these programs. Debbie Alavarez, the Business manager at St. Mary's, is qualified to conduct Safe Environment Training Sessions. It is very important that St. Timothy's take these sessions seriously, and that as many of our people as possible attend them. Our Parish Safe Environment Program will be conducted by Debbie today after the 2 p.m. Mass. Lunch will be provided. -- it's like our regular potluck, but there is no cooking involved!
- ❑ Ash Wednesday is this Wednesday, March 5th. Our St. Timothy's Mass will be at 9:30 a.m. St. Mary's masses will be Noon and 6 p.m. (English) and 8 p.m. Spanish.
- ❑ As we approach our annual Lenten season, please keep the following in mind:

Fast and Abstinence

All persons who have reached their 14th birthday are bound by the law of abstinence. All adults are bound by the law of fast up to their 60th year. The current canonical discipline of penance for the United States, in addition to the general character of the Lenten season, may thus be summed up: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat and also days of fast; that is, limited to a single full meal. The other Fridays of Lent remain days of abstinence from meat. The Fridays of the year outside Lent remain days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial or personal penance; this may be physical mortification or temperance or acts of religion, charity, or Christian witness.

Chrism Mass: Tuesday, April 15 at 5:30 pm at St. Patrick Cathedral.

Easter Vigil: The earliest time the Easter Vigil should be scheduled is 8:30 pm.
