The Collect of the Day

O God, who before the passion of thine only-begotten Son didst reveal his glory upon the holy mount: Grant unto us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Response: Amen.

The Lesson: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

(sit)

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above. They cried one to the other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke. Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar. He touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!"

Response: Thanks be to God.

Gradual & Alleluia (stand)

Gradual Hymn: #419

The Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

Response: Praise be to the O Christ

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- ❑ St. Timothy's Catholic Church Women is collecting candy for the residents of the Union Gospel Mission on St. Valentine's Day. The final day for donations is today – please see Judy Grimada.
- ❑ Our All Parish Meeting Today - Quinquagesima Sunday. Please plan to attend after the Solemn Mass. This is the Sunday immediately following the important Symposium about the Mission of the Ordinariate taking place February 2nd and 3rd in Houston. (which is why we have scheduled our "annual Meeting" for February rather than January). At this meeting the 2013 Budget will be presented and the members of the Parish Council will be announced. This Meeting will also be a time for us to discuss and visualize where our future (both short term and long term) might lead us. A Building Committee and a Capital Campaign will be considered. St. Timothy's Guilds and Groups (Youth Group, Knights of Columbus, Altar Guild, etc.) will make reports and there will be other items of interest. EVERYONE is encouraged to attend this meeting!
- ❑ This Wednesday, February 13th, is ASH WEDNESDAY. The time to prepare for a good Lent is now ~ not on Shrove Tuesday just before going to bed. Copies of a generic Lenten Rule are available from the ushers. There will be a St. Timothy's Anglican Use Mass in the Church at 9:30 a.m. (with Ashes) and Father Stainbrook will be assisting at the St. Mary's Masses at Noon and 7 p.m. (also with Ashes). While we hope that as many as possible will attend our Ordinariate Anglican Use Service in the morning, please remember that St. Timothy's parishioners are always welcome to attend any Masses and Special Services at St. Mary's as well.
- ❑ The Friday after Ash Wednesday, February 15th, begins our 2013 series of Stations of the Cross in St Mary's Church at 7 p.m. The Parish Council will be discussing the feasibility of a having a Meatless Meal in the Cafeteria before the service. (The logistics of this will have to be most carefully worked out). Another possibility is for our parishioners to gather at a restaurant, and enjoy a meal together, before arriving at St. Mary's for the Service. Please share your thoughts and suggestions with Hospitality Chairman Mike Langston at langston.michael@ntx.sysco.com. In any event, we hope that ALL of our Parishioners will keep the habit of attending Stations this year as we have since the founding of our congregation. Please do not let the fact that our Services are not EXACTLY like the use to be at our former location (for the time being) keep you from participating in this most Spiritually Enriching practice.
- ❑ We are reminded that the practice of INTINCTION (that is, the dipping of the Host into the Chalice by either the recipient of the Eucharistic Minister (Subdeacon)) is forbidden at all times, because it is far easier to spread germs via the hands than by mouth.
