Second Sunday in Lent

Old Testament Reading: Genesis 12:1-4a

The LORD said to Abram: “Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you. “I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you.” Abram went as the LORD directed him. Response: Thanks be to God.

The People sing the Responses:

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

R/ (22) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The Epistle: 2 Timothy 1:8b-10

Beloved: Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God. He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: (stand) Matthew 17:1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone. As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead." Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Our Friday Night Stations Of The Cross Services have commenced. St. Timothy's will be alternating with St. Mary's every other week for both Confessions and Stations. Father Bristow will be hearing Confessions from 5:30-6:30 p.m. and leading Stations at 7 p.m. this Friday; Father Stainbrook the following Friday, and so on. Altar Servers who wish to participate in these services are asked to contact our Acolyte Master, Christopher Shirley.
- ❑ There will also be expanded opportunities for Confessions during Lent - Confessions will be held on Fridays at 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. (before Stations of the Cross) and on Saturdays at 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. before the 4:30 Vigil Mass (St. Mary's Novus Ordo style).
- ❑ We are pleased to announce that Father Stainbrook has retained Rebecca Pope, (the Music Director of our host parish, St. Mary of the Assumption Church), as the new Organist and Choir Director of St. Timothy's. Her first Sunday as our Organist is today. Please welcome Rebecca to St. Timothy's -- possibly by joining her in the Choir Loft!
- ❑ It's hard to imagine, but Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter are just around the corner. We need volunteers to help organize the Palm Sunday Procession -- if interested, please contact Chris or Carol Christian.
- ❑ We also need to know if St. Timothy's would again like to provide the Easter baskets for the UG Mission this year -- if interested, please contact Judy Grimada.
- ❑ God willing, His Excellency, The Most Reverend Michael F. Olson, the Bishop of Fort Worth, will ordain The Rev. Deacon Jonathan Duncan, Administrator of St. John Vianney Catholic Church, Cleburne, TX (Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter), to the Sacred Priesthood of the Catholic Church on Saturday, March 29th at 2:00 pm at St. Mary the Virgin in Arlington, TX. Father Stainbrook has acted as the Supply Priest for this Congregation for the last weeks. Their former Pastor, Fr. Charles A, Hough III (a "Son of St. Timothy's") was elevated to the position of Vicar for Clergy for the Ordinariate in the United States.
- ❑ Keeping Our Lenten Rule. We are somewhat surprised that we have, so far, received very few Lenten Rules this year. Making and Keeping a Lenten Rule has long been an important tradition at St. Timothy's (even when we were Episcopalian) Please make every effort to keep a good and Holy Lent. As our Holy Father, Pope Francis, mentioned in his weekly address last week (and which was also stressed in the Sunday homily at St. Timothy's) the old idea of "giving up" something for Lent has a great deal to commend it. We hope to see many more Lenten Rules in the collection basket this Sunday (or in the mail or via email from our Friends who are unable to attend mass personally). Your submitted Lenten Rule is kept in confidence on the altar during the season of Lent, then burned to light the new fire on Holy Saturday. Hard copies of this rule can be obtained from the ushers at Sunday mass.

- ❑ A Note From Our Treasurer: The Icy/Sleety/ Hazardous Weather prevented many parishioners from journeying to Mass recently. Our attendance (and collections) have been very low. Please Do Not Forget Your Contribution to St. Timothy's even if weather prevents your attendance -- please include it with the pledge/contribution St. Timothy's as soon as possible - thank you for your support!
- ❑ During this Lenten season, please keep the following in mind:

Fast and Abstinence

All persons who have reached their 14th birthday are bound by the law of abstinence. All adults are bound by the law of fast up to their 60th year. The current canonical discipline of penance for the United States, in addition to the general character of the Lenten season, may thus be summed up: Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat and also days of fast; that is, limited to a single full meal. The other Fridays of Lent remain days of abstinence from meat. The Fridays of the year outside Lent remain days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial or personal penance; this may be physical mortification or temperance or acts of religion, charity, or Christian witness.

As a reminder, St. Timothy's is a fully Roman Catholic Congregation, and that receiving communion at this mass satisfies the obligation for all Catholics. Please refer to the "Guidelines for receiving Holy Communion" on page 35 of the mass booklet.
