Fourth Sunday in Lent

Old Testament Reading: 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

The LORD said to Samuel: “Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen my king from among his sons.” As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice, Samuel looked at Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed is here before him.” But the LORD said to Samuel: “Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him. Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the LORD looks into the heart.” In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any one of these.” Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Are these all the sons you have?” Jesse replied, “There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep.” Samuel said to Jesse, “Send for him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here.” Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them. He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance. The LORD said, “There—anoint him, for this is the one!” Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The People sing the Responses:

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

The Lord is my shep- herd;
there is noth- ing I shall want.

R/ (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;

beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.

Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side
With your rod and your staff
that give me courage.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Epistle: 2 Ephesians 5:8-14

Brothers and sisters: You were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord. Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness; rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret; but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light. Therefore, it says: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light."

Response: Thanks be to God.

As a reminder, St. Timothy's is a fully Roman Catholic Congregation, and that receiving communion at this mass satisfies the obligation for all Catholics. Please refer to the "Guidelines for receiving Holy Communion" on page 35 of the mass booklet.

The Gospel: (stand) John 9:1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth. He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam” — which means Sent —. So he went and washed, and came back able to see. His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said, “Isn’t this the one who used to sit and beg?” Some said, “It is, “ but others said, “No, he just looks like him.” He said, “I am.” They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees. Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath. So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see. He said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see.” So some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a sinful man do such signs?” And there was a division among them. So they said to the blind man again, “What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?” He said, “He is a prophet.” They answered and said to him, “You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?” Then they threw him out. When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?” He answered and said, “Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?” Jesus said to him, “You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he.” He said, “I do believe, Lord,” and he worshiped Him.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Our Friday Night Stations of the Cross Services continue this week -- St. Timothy's will be alternating with St. Mary's every other week for both Confessions and Stations. Father Bristow will be hearing Confessions and leading Stations this Friday, April 4th.
- ❑ We have noted with some disappointment that fewer parishioners are attending Stations this year than in past years. Indeed, it is true that when we were Episcopalians with our own building, we were able to enhance this Lenten devotion with a community meal hosted by the various guilds and groups in the parish, but our (temporary) inability to continue this communal dining experience of our Friday Night Lenten devotions should not cause us to forgo the devotion itself. The purpose of these evenings is, after all, to walk the Way of the Cross with our Savior (the meatless meal was always an enjoyable addition, but not the purpose itself) and we earnestly hope that our parishioners will return this Friday at 7 p.m. for Stations.
- ❑ There will also be expanded opportunities for Confessions during Lent - Confessions will be held on Fridays at 5:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. (before Stations of the Cross) and on Saturdays at 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. before the 4:30 Vigil Mass (St. Mary's Novus Ordo style).
- ❑ The Catholics United for Life 30th Annual Bishop's Good Friday Rosary for Life will be held April 18th, from 12:30-2:00pm at Planned Parenthood Abortion Center, 6400 John Ryan Road, Ft. Worth. To reach the location, from I-30, exit Bryant Irvin Rd. Go south 5.2 miles to Oakmont. Turn left on Oakmont .1 mile to Harris Pkwy. Go right .4 miles to John Ryan. Turn right on John Ryan. Park on the street. NOT IN HARRIS HOSPITAL LOT. For More information call (817) 738-1086.
- ❑ It's hard to imagine, but Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter are just around the corner. We need volunteers to help organize the Palm Sunday Procession -- if interested, please contact Chris or Carol Christian.
- ❑ We also need to know if St. Timothy's would again like to provide the Easter baskets for the UG Mission this year -- if interested, please contact Judy Grimada.
- ❑ After reviewing the movie times for the new film "SON OF GOD, and discussing options with several parishioners, we have decided to wait and show the film in the School Cafeteria when it comes out on DVD later in the year. This way more of our parishioners can enjoy this inspiring adaptation of the life of Our Lord.

- ❑ We are very proud to announce that life-long parishioner Myles Langston has achieved that rank of Eagle Scout through the Boy Scouts of America. St. Timothy's parishioners are cordially invited to attend the Eagle Court of Honor where Myles will receive his award. The Court of Honor will be held on April 5th, at 11:30 AM, at the Westminster Presbyterian Church, 7001 Trail Lake Dr, Fort Worth, TX 76133. A reception will follow.
