Lent 1

Year B

1st Reading: Genesis 9:8-15

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, “Behold, I establish my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.” And God said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

The People sing the Responses:

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth
to those who keep your covenant.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth

to those who keep your covenant.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD,
and your love are from of old.

In your kindness remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth
to those who keep your covenant.

Good and upright is the LORD,
thus he shows sinners the way.

He guides the humble to justice,
and he teaches the humble his way.

R. Your ways, O Lord, are love and truth
to those who keep your covenant.

The Epistle: 1 Peter 3:18-22

For Christ also died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit; in which he went and preached to the spirits in prison, who formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a clear conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers subject to him.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 1:12-15

The Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. And he was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered to him. Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent, and believe in the gospel."

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Our next regular Parish Council Meeting is today following Mass.
- ❑ Possibly due to the inconvenient time this year of 9:30 a.m. not everyone was able to attend Mass on Ash Wednesday. To that end we are making the "Making Your Lenten Rule" form available for those who were not able to be present at Mass last Wednesday. Forms are available from the Ushers. Please submit your Lenten Rule today or next Sunday and it will be included with the others and then burned in the New Fire at the Easter Vigil.
- ❑ Friday night confessions and Stations of the Cross continue February 27th. Confessions from 5:30 - 6:30 and Stations at 7 p.m. Father Bristow (St. Mary's) and Father Stainbrook (St. Timothy's) will alternate hearing Confessions and leading Stations. Fr. Stainbrook will lead the Stations on February 27th. Altar Servers will be needed to assist Father Stainbrook on Friday..
- ❑ St. Timothy's Needs You! Lent, a season where Christians often "take on" something for God and His Church prompts us to announce that St. Timothy's needs more Altar Servers. In order to fully celebrate our Solemn Mass we need 9 men and boys each week. Therefore, we are asking the men and boys in the congregation who are not currently serving on the Altar to consider joining their ranks. (As part of your Lenten Rule, perhaps?) Presently, the same core group is serving every week and we don't want to wear them out -- Please consider serving God and your Parish. For training, please see Acolyte Masters Chris Shirley and Chris Christian. St. Timothy's thanks you for your support.
- ❑ Our next Potluck Lunch will be Sunday, March 1st after the 2 p.m. Mass. Father Stainbrook will present an overview of the last Quarter of 2014 and the First Quarter of 2015 at this lunch, and the leaders of various groups and guilds in the congregation are invited to make presentations as well (this luncheon presentation takes the place of the old "Annual Meeting" we had as Episcopalians). Please plan to attend this event -- both for the food and for fellowship as we see how best to move "Forward in Faith Together".
