Lent 3 Year B

1st Reading: Exodus 20:1-17

And God spoke all these words, saying, “I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. “You shall have no other gods before me. “You shall not make for yourself a graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me, but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments. “You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain. “Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labor, and do all your work; but the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; in it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, your manservant, or your maidservant, or your cattle, or the sojourner who is within your gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it. “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which the Lord your God gives you. “You shall not kill. “You shall not commit adultery. “You shall not steal. “You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. “You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or his manservant, or his maidservant, or his ox, or his ass, or anything that is your neighbor’s.”

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11

The People sing the Responses:

Lord, you have the words of ev - er - last - ing life.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the LORD is perfect,

refreshing the soul;
The decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.
R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.
The precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
the command of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eye.
R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.
The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.
R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.
They are more precious than gold,
than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup
or honey from the comb.
R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 2:13-25

The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers at their business. And making a whip of cords, he drove them all, with the sheep and oxen, out of the temple; and he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; you shall not make my Father's house a house of trade." His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for thy house will consume me." The Jews then said to him, "What sign have you to show us for doing this?" Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?" But he spoke of the temple of his body. When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken. Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs which he did; but Jesus did not trust himself to them, because he knew all men and needed no one to bear witness of man; for he himself knew what was in man.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ We are very pleased to announce that our mass attendance has been higher these last two weeks, with a welcome influx of visitors (over 30 each Sunday). However, probably due to the inclement weather, attendance by our regular members is lower this month - and the collections are not nearly where they should be. It is up to our regular parishioners, not visitors, to maintain our congregation. If you have missed Mass this month due to the bad weather -- PLEASE keep your contributions up to date.
- ❑ Friday night confessions and Stations of the Cross continue March 13th. Confessions from 5:30 - 6:30 and Stations at 7 p.m. Father Bristow (St. Mary's) and Father Stainbrook (St. Timothy's) will alternate hearing Confessions and leading Stations. Father Stainbrook will lead them this week. (Acolytes will be needed when Father Stainbrook leads the Stations on March 13th)
- ❑ Our Easter Outreach for the residents of the Union Gospel Mission is proceeding nicely. Thank you to those who have made suggestions and contributions. Paper lunch sacks are very inexpensive and we are hoping to get 200 at a minimal cost. Inside each bag we are planning to include a pair of sox, a small chocolate bunny, some other small pieces of candy, maybe a religious card of some kind, a deck of playing cards. Your help is greatly appreciated in whatever way you want to contribute. Please see or email Judy Grimada (email: judygrimada@att.net) for more information. I know you will be generous in this project as you always are.
- ❑ St. Timothy's Needs You! Lent, a season where Christians often "take on" something for God and His Church prompts us to announce that St. Timothy's needs more Altar Servers. In order to fully celebrate our Solemn Mass we need 9 men and boys each week. Therefore, we are asking the men and boys in the congregation who are not currently serving on the Altar to consider joining their ranks. (As part of your Lenten Rule, perhaps?) Presently, the same core group is serving every week and we don't want to wear them out -- Please consider serving God and your Parish. For training, please see Acolyte Masters Chris Shirley and Chris Christian. St. Timothy's thanks you for your support.
