The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion, we beseech thee, on our infirmities, and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, mercifully give us for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Response: Amen.

The Lesson: Ephesians 2:13-18

(sit)

But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby: And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

Response: Thanks be to God

Gradual & Alleluia

Gradual Hymn #635

The Gospel: Mark 6:30-34

And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. And they departed into a desert place by ship privately. And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him. And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

Response: Praise be to thee O Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- ❑ St. Timothy's is now able to offer a full Catholic Mass (This means that ANY of one's friends who are Roman Catholic are able to attend our Mass and allowed to receive Holy Communion. Our Mass as Catholics is very similar to the old St Timothy's Anglican Mass, but with a few additions which are noted in the Sunday bulletins. Note especially that instead of using the Communion Prayer written by Anglican Archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas Cranmer, we will be using the historic Roman Canon at the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The Roman Canon dates back to the 16th century Council of Trent, is beloved throughout the Church, and is used in traditional Catholic Churches (including Ordinariate Churches) around the world. Note also the guidelines for Communion (who is permitted to receive Communion at St. Timothy's) decreed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Copies of these guidelines are available in the narthex of the church.
- ❑ Our traditional "Coffee/fellowship" hour has been renamed "Tea Time" It will resume today in the Parish Hall Cafeteria. Iced Tea, Fruit Punch and afternoon snacks are available for our parishioners and guests during Tea Time. We hope that many people will sign up to act as hosts and clean up coordinators. This social time after our Mass is a particular tradition which we bring to the Catholic Church. Often, regular Roman Catholics just evaporate after their masses, but we hope that fellowship time will be part of our "patrimony" which we continue. To do this, though, we need the help of everybody, not just a few families. Please join us for a fun time, enjoy tea or iced tea or snacks -- and help preserve our fellowship!!
PLEASE SEE MARSHELLE LANGSTON for more details.
- ❑ The Catholic Church Women will have a salad lunch on July 29th (the last Sunday in July) in the Cafeteria. Lola Hankins will be selling raffle 50-50 tickets after masses and during Tea Time. Please plan to attend this opportunity for both "fund" raising and "fun" raising. The members of the CCW will also have their MONTHLY POKENO GAME at the home of Tomi Godbee on SATURDAY July 14th. Information and directions are available today.
