The Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that, thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Response: Amen.

The Lesson: Ephesians 4:1-6

(sit)

I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

Response: Thanks be to God

Gradual & Alleluia

Gradual Hymn #635

The Gospel: John 6:1-15

After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples. And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do. Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. Response: Praise be to thee O Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Catholic Church Women will have a salad lunch today in the Cafeteria following mass. Lola Hankins will also be selling raffle 50-50 tickets after masses. Please plan to attend this opportunity for both 'fund' raising and "fun" raising.

August 15th, Feast of the Assumption, A Holy Day of Obligation, and our Host Parish's Patronal Festival -- Solemn Mass and Procession with the Statue of the Blessed Virgin at 7 p.m.(Combined St. Mary's and St. Timothy's clergy, choirs and congregation).

Parishioner Jewel Merrett has done some research for our Hymnal Project, and informs us that 1982 Hymnals can be purchased from AMAZON for as little as $6.97. Why not order yours today?

OUTREACH: St. Mary's operates a food pantry on the 2nd Saturday of the month. This is a hard summer for many people, and both volunteers and food donations are very much needed. For more information, or to volunteer, please call the church office at 817-923-1911

CONFESSIONS: St. Timothy's has traditionally had Confessions at 10 a.m. on Saturdays (The time was chosen to follow our 9:30 mass and to provide additional activity while the altar guild was preparing for Sunday) As these activities no longer occur, starting this Saturday, St. Timothy's Confessions will be heard at the regularly scheduled Confession time of 3 p.m. each Saturday (before the 4:30 p.m. mass) Father Stainbrook and Father Bristow will alternate each week.

Our traditional "Coffee/fellowship" hour has been renamed "Tea Time" It will resume today in the Parish Hall Cafeteria. Iced Tea, Fruit Punch and afternoon snacks are available for our parishioners and guests during Tea Time. We hope that many people will sign up to act as hosts and clean up coordinators. This social time time after our Mass is a particular tradition which we bring to the Catholic Church. Often, regular Roman Catholics just evaporate after their masses, but we hope that fellowship time will be part of our "patrimony" which we continue. To do this, though, we need the help of everybody, not just a few families. Please join us for a fun time, enjoy tea or iced tea or snacks -- and help preserve our fellowship!!. PLEASE SEE MARSHELLE LANGSTON for more details.
