The Collect of the Day

O God, forasmuch without thee we are not able to please thee, mercifully grant that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the same Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, now and for ever. Response: Amen.

The Lesson: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

(sit)

I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Gradual & Alleluia (stand)

Gradual Hymn #574

The Gospel: Luke 15:1-32

Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spake this parable unto them, saying, What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth. And he said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him. And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

Response: Praise be to the O Christ.

As a reminder, St. Timothy's is a fully Roman Catholic Congregation, and that receiving communion at this mass satisfies the obligation for all Catholics. Please refer to the "Guidelines for receiving Holy Communion" on page 31 of the mass booklet.

Announcements

- ❑ We need Altar Servers and Altar Guild members! Now that the summer is over, we hope that more of our parishioners will choose to assist in these important ministries. In order to celebrate a Solemn Mass, we need 9 servers and altar boys on the Altar every week! Men and boys of St. Timothy's, won't you answer the call and join the ranks to serve! Please see Acolyte Master, Christopher Shirley if you can join in this most essential ministry of our church. The Altar Guild is made of of BOTH men and women (and boys and girls) who set up and clean up for our masses, and keep the vestments neat and clean. If you can assist, please see Altar Guild Directress, Betsy Acker.
- ❑ And Now, A Word From Our Treasury Department: When you take a Vacation from church -- our St. Timothy's bills do not. During the month of September, we urge everyone to be as generous as possible in maintaining your pledges. Also please remember to support our friends and hosts at St. Mary's with their very high utility costs by contributing to the Air Conditioning fund. Special envelopes for this fund can be obtained from the ushers.
- ❑ Inquirer's and Confirmation Classes begin soon! We will be deciding on the most optimal time (either weekends or evenings depending on the schedules of the class members). Our texts this year will be Catholicism: A Journey to the Heart of Heart of the Faith by Fr. Robert Barron, and the Illustrated History of Catholicism & the Catholic Saints by Fr. Ronald Creighton-Jones, and Tessa Paul. Limited copies can be found at Half Price Books at a discount, or they can be ordered from St. Anthony's Bookstore in Fort Worth (or from the Internet.) Family members of St. Timothy's Parishioners, Anglicans interested in joining the Catholic Church, Catholics who are not yet confirmed, and anyone looking to become Catholic are most welcome to attend. All current parishioners are also most welcome -- especially if they have family members in the class.
- ❑ We have had very good response from the congregation in filling out and returning the required Ordinariate Membership Roll forms. Father Stainbrook was able to send the first batch to the Ordinariate Central Office before his vacation and will send a 2nd batch upon his return. Everyone Who Attends St. Timothy's is requested to complete this form (even if you are not yet a Catholic). If you have not yet been able to complete yours, please complete it as soon as possible and bring it with you to church. You may give your copy to one of the Ushers or place it in the collection basket.
