The Collect of the Day

O God, from whom all good doth come: Grant that by thy inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Response: Amen.

The Lesson: Galatians 1:11-19

(sit)

But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

Response: Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn #411

The Gospel: Luke 7:11-17

And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, "Weep not." And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say unto thee, Arise." And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, "That a great prophet is risen up among us;" and, "That God hath visited his people." And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about. Response: Praise be to the O Christ.

- ❑ The Vocation Office for the Diocese of Fort Worth presents "Breakfast at the Cathedral". It is a half day retreat designed to give high school aged male youth the tools to discern a possible priestly vocation. Since applicants to the seminary must be adults, Breakfast at the Cathedral is an event run by seminarians to help mentor youth who are not yet old enough to make a decision about their vocation. Activities include Mass, morning prayer, breakfast, vocation workshops and sports activities. The goal is for youth to be encouraged and come away with an experience that gives them the tools to understand what it means to follow Christ and to discern. For more information contact the Director of Vocations, Fr. Isaac Orozco, at 817-560-2452, ext. 110 or by email at iorozco@fwdioc.org.
- ❑ The Awareness Program helps single Catholic men and women, ages 18-40, find answers to questions they may have about life as a Priest, Sister, or Brother. The weekend includes presentations, panel discussions, question and answer sessions, one-on-one personal conferences with diocesan and order Priests, Sisters, and Brothers who volunteer to serve as staff. There are no fees, private rooms and meals are furnished, and no one will pressure you or seek commitment. For more information on the Priesthood or religious life, contact the Vocations Office 817-560-2452, ext. 110 or by email at iorozco@fwdioc.org.
- ❑ The question has been raised as to whether we can have more FUND/FUN Raisers (mentioned especially was the resurrection of our Bingo nights, and having a parish dance). Your Parish Council will be exploring these options at their June Meeting -- please share your thoughts with them.
