11th Sunday after Trinity

1st Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

O Lord, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived; thou art stronger than I, and thou hast prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all the day; every one mocks me. For whenever I speak, I cry out, I shout, "Violence and destruction!" For the word of the Lord has become for me a reproach and derision all day long. If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak any more in his name," there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 63:2-6, 8, 9

The People sing the Responses:

My soul is thirst-ing for you, O Lord my God.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts
like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary
to see your power and your glory,
for your kindness is a greater good than life;
my lips shall glorify you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus will I bless you while I live;
lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.
As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied,

and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

You are my help,

and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.

My soul clings fast to you;

your right hand upholds me.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

The Epistle: Romans 12:1, 2

I appeal to you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world[a] but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may prove what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 16: 21-27

From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid, Lord! This shall never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance[i] to me; for you are not on the side of God, but of men." Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and forfeits his life? Or what shall a man give in return for his life? For the Son of man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay every man for what he has done. Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom."

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

Special Intention for the Prayer of the Faithful

*Let us unite our voices and hearts before the Lord of peace.
May the light of Christ fill the hearts of all suffering people with consolation and hope.
May the Gospel message of Peace, through our prayers, inspire the leaders of Iraq to sacrifice personal interests for the common good and welfare.*

Where appropriate, the following prayer may also be used within Mass or at parish meetings or gatherings:

*Lord,
The plight of the Church in Iraq, and throughout the Middle East,
is deep and the suffering of Christians
is severe and frightening.
Therefore, we ask you Lord
to spare their lives, and to grant them patience, and courage to continue their witness of Christian values
with trust and hope.
Lord, peace is the foundation of life;
Grant peace and stability that will enable all people
to live with each other without fear and anxiety,
and with dignity and joy.
Glory to Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.*
