13th Sunday after Trinity

1st Reading: Numbers 21:4-9

From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; and the people became impatient on the way. And the people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we loathe this worthless food.” Then the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many people of Israel died. And the people came to Moses, and said, “We have sinned, for we have spoken against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, “Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole; and every one who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live.” So Moses made a bronze serpent, and set it on a pole; and if a serpent bit any man, he would look at the bronze serpent and live. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 78:1-2,34-38

The People sing the Responses:

R. Do not forget the works of the Lord!

Hearken, my people, to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable,

I will utter mysteries from of old.

R. Do not forget the works of the Lord!

While he slew them they sought him
and inquired after God again,

Remembering that God was their rock and the Most High God, their redeemer.

R. Do not forget the works of the Lord!

But they flattered him with their mouths
and lied to him with their tongues,

Though their hearts were not steadfast toward him,
nor were they faithful to his covenant.

R. Do not forget the works of the Lord!

But he, being merciful, forgave their sin
and destroyed them not;

Often he turned back his anger
and let none of his wrath be roused.

R. Do not forget the works of the Lord!

The Epistle: Philippians 2:6-11

Have this mind among yourselves, which was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, [c] being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 3:13-17

No one has ascended into heaven but he who descended from heaven, the Son of man. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.” For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God sent the Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Next Sunday, September 21, St. Timothy's Parish Council will meet in the conference room after the 2:00PM mass.
- ❑ Another Confirmation Class has begun! Interested in becoming a Catholic Christian and joining the Church as a parishioner at St. Timothy's? Do you want to enter the Ordinariate, and be a full Catholic in communion with the Pope, while also being able to keep all of the beautiful and historic traditions and patrimony from our "Anglo Catholic" past, but don't know how? Confirmation Class is for you! The classes began last week and continue at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings in the School Wing. It's not too late to join the 2014 Class because if you are ready to be a Catholic, we are ready to show you how!
