Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

“Let us lie in wait for the righteous man, because he is inconvenient to us and opposes our actions; he reproaches us for sins against the law, and accuses us of sins against our training. Let us see if his words are true, and let us test what will happen at the end of his life; for if the righteous man is God’s son, he will help him, and will deliver him from the hand of his adversaries. Let us test him with insult and torture, that we may find out how gentle he is, and make trial of his forbearance. Let us condemn him to a shameful death, for, according to what he says, he will be protected.” Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 54:3-4, 5, 6 and 8

The People sing the Responses:

R. The Lord upholds my life.

O God, by your name save me,
and by your might defend my cause.

O God, hear my prayer;
hearken to the words of my mouth.

R. The Lord upholds my life.

For the haughty men have risen up against me,
the ruthless seek my life;
they set not God before their eyes.

R. The Lord upholds my life.

Behold, God is my helper;
the Lord sustains my life.
Freely will I offer you sacrifice;

I will praise your name, O LORD, for its goodness.

R. The Lord upholds my life.

The Epistle: James 3:16—4:3

For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty or insincerity. And the harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace. What causes wars, and what causes fightings among you? Is it not your passions that are at war in your members? You desire and do not have; so you kill. And you covet[a] and cannot obtain; so you fight and wage war. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 9:30-37

They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he would not have any one know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, after three days he will rise.” But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to ask him. Who Is the Greatest? And they came to Caper’na-um; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you discussing on the way?” But they were silent; for on the way they had discussed with one another who was the greatest. And he sat down and called the twelve; and he said to them, “If any one would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.” And he took a child, and put him in the midst of them; and taking him in his arms, he said to them, “Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me.”

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ 40 Days for Life 2015 Kick off Rally – Wednesday, September 23rd, 7:00 P.M.). Join us for the opening rally and bring a friend!!! Where: in front of Planned Parenthood, 6464 John Ryan Drive in Southwest Fort Worth. (Note: No confirmation class at St. Timothy's that evening.)

Fr. Stainbrook has appointed Gimarie Menchaca as the St. Timothy's coordinator. Please contact her for additional information on this event that runs through November 1. Thank you for your continued prayers throughout the year to End Abortion.

40 Days for Life takes a determined, peaceful approach to showing local communities the consequences of abortion in their own neighborhoods, for their own friends and families. It puts into action a desire to cooperate with God in the carrying out of His plan for the end of abortion in America. 40 Days for Life is a community-based campaign that draws attention to the evil of abortion through the use of a three-point program.

- ❑ Father Stainbrook will be attending a mandatory clergy conference in Chicago, from September 28th to October 2nd. Thank you to all who responded so far to the Special Collections the past two weeks for the cost of attending this Conference. Special Collection envelopes for this purpose are still available this week and next week, and it is the hope of the Ordinariate leadership that St. Timothy's parishioners will respond generously, perhaps as a mini pledge for this month, to their directive that each congregation underwrite the cost of their priest's attendance.
- ❑ 2015 Confirmation - Let the good times begin! The 2015 classes have begun, but it is not too late to join. Interested in the Catholic faith? The Ordinariate? The Change of Seasons from Summer to Autumn means it's time for another St. Timothy's

Inquirers/Confirmation/RCIA Class The class meets on Wednesday evenings, in the Purple Classroom in the School Building. For more information, see Father Stainbrook -- All are Welcome! (Please note: there will be no class this Wednesday - September 23rd - in order to allow the class members to participate in the 40 days for life kick off that evening.)

- ❑ The Autumn Season is a time to reinstitute our St. Timothy's Altar Guild. This important Guild cleans and polishes the chalices, candlesticks, thuribles (incense holders) and launders the linens, albs and cottas used by the Clergy and Altar Servers at Mass. Recently, we've noticed that our vessels don't shine as they should and our vestments are not as "glistening" (to use the old definition) white as they could be. Both Women AND Men are invited to consider enrolling in the Altar Guild and help make St. Timothy's (literally) shine! Please see Father Stainbrook for more information.

- ❑ AND, the Autumn Season is also a good time to recruit more Altar Servers. We welcome our new servers, Tanner Whitham and Tom Acker, but we can always use more! Please see Acolyte Master, Chris Christian if you can assist.
- ❑ Two prayerful public witness events you can attend in October:
 1. The 29th National Life Chain Sunday is October 4, 2:30 to 4:00 p.m. We will stand with Christians throughout the USA witnessing through a peaceful, prayerful stand for life --- 3601 Alta Mesa Blvd (St. Bartholomew Catholic Church). Additional parking available at LA Fitness. Signs are provided.
 2. The Public Square Rosary Crusade is Saturday, October 10, from 12 noon to 12:45. Over 14,000 rallies will be praying for the repentance and conversion of our nation. One of the Fort Worth rallies will be on the public sidewalk at the corner of 3601 Altamesa and Vega Street. For other locations, call 866-584-6012. For info on either event, contact Nan Czaplá, 817-346-0926.
