Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Numbers 11:25-29

Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was upon him and put it upon the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did so no more. Now two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested upon them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.” And Joshua the son of Nun, the minister of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, “My lord Moses, forbid them.” But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the Lord’s people were prophets, that the Lord would put his spirit upon them!” Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 19:8, 10, 12-13, 14

The People sing the Responses:

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the LORD is perfect,
refreshing the soul;
the decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

Though your servant is careful of them,
very diligent in keeping them,
Yet who can detect failings?

Cleanse me from my unknown faults!

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

From wanton sin especially, restrain your servant;
let it not rule over me.

Then shall I be blameless and innocent of serious sin.

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The Epistle: James 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you. Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and silver have rusted, and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure for the last days. Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, cry out; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on the earth in luxury and in pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. You have condemned, you have killed the righteous man; he does not resist you. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

John said to him, "Teacher, we saw a man casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him; for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon after to speak evil of me. For he that is not against us is for us. For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ, will by no means lose his reward. "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung round his neck and he were thrown into the sea. And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, where their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched. Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ The 40 Days for Life 2015 Kick off Rally was held last Wednesday. Fr. Stainbrook has appointed Gimarie Menchaca as the St. Timothy's coordinator. Please contact her for additional information on this event that runs through November 1. Thank you for your continued prayers throughout the year to End Abortion.

- ❑ Father Stainbrook will be attending a mandatory clergy conference in Chicago this week, September 28th to October 2nd. Thank you to all who responded so far to the Special Collections the past two weeks for the cost of attending this Conference. Special Collection envelopes for this purpose are still available this week and next week, and it is the hope of the Ordinariate leadership that St. Timothy's parishioners will respond generously, perhaps as a mini pledge for this month, to their directive that each congregation underwrite the cost of their priest's attendance. There will no Mass or Class during this time.

- ❑ Our regular Sunday schedule resumes next Sunday, October 4th with Mass at 2 p.m. followed by our Monthly Parish Potluck. Father Stainbrook will give a report on this week's Ordinariate meeting at the Pot Luck. Please plan to attend both the Mass and the Pot Luck to learn about the latest developments in the Ordinariate and enjoy a festive lunch with your fellow parishioners.

- ❑ 2015 Confirmation - Let the good times begin! The 2015 classes have begun, but it is not too late to join. Interested in the Catholic faith? The Ordinariate? The Change of Seasons from Summer to Autumn means it's time for another St. Timothy's Inquirers/Confirmation/RCIA Class. The class meets on Wednesday evenings, in the Purple Classroom in the School Building. For more information, see Father Stainbrook -- All are Welcome! (Please note: there will be no class this Wednesday - September 30th – as Fr. Stainbrook will be out of town.)

- ❑ The Autumn Season is a time to reinstitute our St. Timothy's Altar Guild. This important Guild cleans and polishes the chalices, candlesticks, thuribles (incense holders) and launders the linens, albs and cottas used by the Clergy and Altar Servers at Mass. Recently, we've noticed that our vessels don't shine as they should and our vestments are not as "glistening" (to use the old definition) white as they could be. Both Women AND Men are invited to consider enrolling in the Altar Guild and help make St. Timothy's (literally) shine! Please see Father Stainbrook for more information.

- ❑ AND, the Autumn Season is also a good time to recruit more Altar Servers. We welcome our new servers, Tanner Whitham and Tom Acker, but we can always use more! Please see Acolyte Master, Chris Christian if you can assist.
- ❑ St. Timothy's Holiday Outreach at Union Gospel Mission (UGM) - The UGM has informed us that they only have four senior ladies now (the often neglected group of residents whom we have chosen to support) and don't expect to have any more before Christmas. That means we should have more participation for their "guests". You can bring socks to Mass whenever you want. Judy Grimada will keep them, and take all our donations to the Mission. We need to have them by December 13 so we can get them all packaged and delivered on December 21. If anyone would like to make a bag for one of the senior ladies, let Judy know. Since there are only four, if you would like to bring gifts for a bag to her, she will have bags and put everything in them. Or if you would prefer you can do your own thing and put your bag together yourself.

Donations of money for food can be given to Judy, or Carol Christian, our treasurer at anytime.

In the past we have had good participation with this Holiday Outreach and the Mission is very appreciative of our help. Thank you in advance for your help.

Judy Grimada, St. Timothy's Outreach Coordinator

Parish Personal: For our family, last Tuesday was an historic day as Steve was released from the Baylor Rehab Center in Dallas and has returned home. This is largely because of the support and prayers of our St. Timothy's family and the awesome doctors and nurses who literally saved his life. For that we will be eternally grateful. For the time being he will continue physical therapy every day, but on an outpatient basis. I think being home will help a lot as well. Thanks be to God and thank you to everyone.
