19th Sunday after Trinity

1st Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

“Whoever sacrifices to any god, save to the Lord only, shall be utterly destroyed. You shall not wrong a stranger or oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. You shall not afflict any widow or orphan. If you do afflict them, and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry; and my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless. If you lend money to any of my people with you who is poor, you shall not be to him as a creditor, and you shall not exact interest from him. If ever you take your neighbor’s garment in pledge, you shall restore it to him before the sun goes down.”

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 18:2-4, 47, 51

The People sing the Responses:

I love you, Lord, my strength. _____

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength,
O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge,
my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!

Praised be the LORD, I exclaim,
and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives and blessed be my rock!

Extolled be God my savior.

You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The Epistle: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit; so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedo'nia and in Acha'ia. For not only has the word of the Lord sounded forth from you in Macedo'nia and Acha'ia, but your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything. For they themselves report concerning us what a welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sad'ducees, they came together. And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, to test him. "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ.

Announcements

- ❑ Fr. Stainbrook will be attending a meeting of Ordinariate Clergy this week, so there will be no Wednesday morning Mass or Bible Class.
- ❑ All Souls Day has always been a special occasion at St. Timothy's. This year it falls on a Sunday (next Sunday), November 2nd and when we will have our traditional All Souls Solemn Mass at 2 pm. This is also the first Sunday of the month, and so we will be able to combine this Solemn Day with our regular monthly Pot Luck Lunch after the mass. Please mark your calendars and invite your family and friends to this moving occasion. Lists of the "Beloved Dead" to be read at the Altar at this Mass are available in the Narthex. For our "Friends of St. Timothy's" and others who are unable to attend this mass, lists of the "Beloved Dead" can be obtained from the church office or website.
- ❑ Sunday, January 18th, will be Confirmation Sunday at St. Timothy's. We are delighted to announce that His Excellency, The Most Rev'd Michael Olson, Bishop of Fort Worth, will preside from the throne at our 2 p.m. Solemn Mass in the Presence of a Greater Prelate, and celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation for our newest members -- a reception in the school's cafeteria will follow. It should go without saying (but we will anyway!) that we hope -- indeed we EXPECT -- that ALL members of St. Timothy's will be present for this very special occasion!!
- ❑ If you're in the DFW area, why not support the "Pumpkin Patch" at Mater Dei ("Mother of God") Catholic Church located at 2030 State Hwy 356, Irving, TX 75060. The Mater Dei Pumpkin Patch will be selling pumpkins October 14-31. Our Congregation has a close relationship with the clergy and people of this parish since Mater Dei supplies the priests who celebrate the Latin Mass at 5:30 p.m. at our host parish of St. Mary's Church after our 2 p.m. mass. For more information, please see their website at materdeiparish.com.
- ❑ Speaking of our host parish, St. Mary's will host a Turkey Bingo Night on Saturday, November 15th beginning at 6 p.m. Mark your calendars now for this fun event -- food fellowship and fun prizes will be available (more information and a flyer will be available soon). We hope to have a strong level of St. Timothy's support for these Fund/Fun raisers at both of these Catholic Communities (who are supportive our witness and mission at St. Timothy's).

- ❑ Daylight Saving Time will end on Sunday, November 2. Remember to set your clocks back one hour before retiring on Saturday night.

- ❑ Due to poor registration numbers, the Diocesan Marriage and Family Life Office has cancelled the November 1, 2014 “Families: Where Saints are Made” family life conference at St. Francis of Assisi Parish in Grapevine. Anyone who purchased tickets online will receive a refund back to their credit card. The refund will be shown on their credit card statement as a transaction from ServiceU. If the registration fee was mailed to the Catholic Center, a check will be coming to you shortly. Please continue to pray for marriage and family life ministries and watch your parish bulletins for more upcoming events.
