Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

Therefore I prayed, and understanding was given me; I called upon God, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepters and thrones, and I accounted wealth as nothing in comparison with her. Neither did I liken to her any priceless gem, because all gold is but a little sand in her sight, and silver will be accounted as clay before her. I loved her more than health and beauty, and I chose to have her rather than light, because her radiance never ceases. All good things came to me along with her, and in her hands uncounted wealth. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17

The People sing the Responses:

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days aright,
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Return, O LORD! How long?
Have pity on your servants!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness,
that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days.
Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us,
for the years when we saw evil.

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children;
and may the gracious care of the LORD our God be ours;
prosper the work of our hands for us!
Prosper the work of our hands!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Hebrews 4:12-13

For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are open and laid bare to the eyes of him with whom we have to do. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” And Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.’” And he said to him, “Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.” And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” At that saying his countenance fell, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions. And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.” Peter began to say to him, “Lo, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ New Missal for the Ordinariate! The Ordinariate Chancery has announced the exciting news that the new Ordinariate Missal has been approved by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, and will be printed soon. Beginning on the First Sunday in Advent, 2015, all Ordinariate Communities are required to use this Missal for all Masses. (Rather than the loose leaf binders we have been using). It's a beautiful tome, (as our display in the back of the church illustrates) but very expensive (300 English pounds which is about $500, plus shipping). We are taking special collections today toward the cost of our new Missal, and we invite any of our Friends of St. Timothy's friends who would like to contribute toward this compulsory addition (indeed, edition!) Please make your checks out to our host parish, St. Mary's Church, and write "Missal" in the memo line). St. Timothy's is very grateful for your support! Special donation envelopes are available from the ushers.
- ❑ The White Mass for Health Care Professionals will be celebrated at St. Patrick Cathedral on Monday, October 19, at 7 p.m. by Most Reverend Michael F. Olson, Bishop of Fort Worth. This is an annual Mass for Catholics in the health care professions; Physicians, Nurses, Residents, Medical Students, Chaplains, Hospice, Homebound Ministry, and anyone who works in health care. Father Stainbrook, as one of the "On Call" Catholic Chaplains for the Diocese, will be on the altar. Those in attendance are encouraged to wear their white coats or scrubs. All are invited to attend.
- ❑ The annual St. Timothy's All Souls' Day Solemn Requiem Mass is Monday, November 2nd, at 7PM. All Souls Day Remembrance forms are available from the ushers. You may place them in offering basket at mass or mail to the church.
- ❑ The Autumn Season is a time to reinstitute our St. Timothy's Altar Guild. This important Guild cleans and polishes the chalices, candlesticks, thuribles (incense holders) and launders the linens, albs and cottas used by the Clergy and Altar Servers at Mass. Recently, we've noticed that our vessels don't shine as they should and our vestments are not as "glistening" (to use the old definition) white as they could be. Both Women AND Men are invited to consider enrolling in the Altar Guild and help make St. Timothy's (literally) shine! Please see Father Stainbrook for more information.

- ❑ The Autumn Season is also a good time to recruit more Altar Servers. We welcome our new servers, Tanner Whitham and Tom Acker, but we can always use more! Please see Acolyte Master, Chris Christian if you can assist.

- ❑ St. Timothy's Holiday Outreach at Union Gospel Mission (UGM) - The UGM has informed us that they only have four senior ladies now (the often neglected group of residents whom we have chosen to support) and don't expect to have any more before Christmas. That means we should have more participation for their "guests". You can bring socks to Mass whenever you want. Judy Grimada will keep them, and take all our donations to the Mission. We need to have them by December 13 so we can get them all packaged and delivered on December 21. If anyone would like to make a bag for one of the senior ladies, let Judy know. Since there are only four, if you would like to bring gifts for a bag to her, she will have bags and put everything in them. Or if you would prefer you can do your own thing and put your bag together yourself.

Donations of money for food can be given to Judy, or Carol Christian, our treasurer at anytime.

In the past we have had good participation with this Holiday Outreach and the Mission is very appreciative of our help. Thank you in advance for your help
