Twentieth Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Yet it was the will of the Lord to bruise him; he has put him to grief; when he makes himself[h] an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, he shall prolong his days; the will of the Lord shall prosper in his hand; he shall see the fruit of the travail of his soul and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous; and he shall bear their iniquities.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

The People sing the Responses:

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,

as we place our trust in you.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.

May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us,
as we place our trust in you.

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sinning. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

And James and John, the sons of Zeb'edee, came forward to him, and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" And they said to him, "We are able." And Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant at James and John. And Jesus called them to him and said to them, "You know that those who are supposed to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of man also came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ New Missal for the Ordinariate! The Ordinariate Chancery has announced the exciting news that the new Ordinariate Missal has been approved by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, and will be printed soon. Beginning the First Sunday in Advent, all Ordinariate Communities are required to use this Missal for all Masses. (Rather than the loose leaf binders we have been using). It's a beautiful tome, (as our display in the back of the church illustrates) but very expensive (300 English pounds which is about $500, plus shipping). We are Continuing to take special collections today toward the cost of our new Missal, and we invite any of our Friends of St. Timothy's friends who would like to contribute toward this compulsory addition (indeed, edition!) Please make your checks out to our host parish, St. Mary's Church, and write "Missal" in the memo line). St. Timothy's is very grateful for your support! Special donation envelopes are available from the ushers.

- ❑ The White Mass for Health Care Professionals will be celebrated at St. Patrick Cathedral tomorrow, October 19, at 7 p.m. by Most Reverend Michael F. Olson, Bishop of Fort Worth. This is an annual Mass for Catholics in the health care professions; Physicians, Nurses, Residents, Medical Students, Chaplains, Hospice, Homebound Ministry, and anyone who works in health care. Father Stainbrook, as one of the "On Call" Catholic Chaplains for the Diocese, will be on the altar. Those in attendance are encouraged to wear their white coats or scrubs. All are invited to attend.
- ❑ The Autumn Season is a time to reinstitute our St. Timothy's Altar Guild. This important Guild cleans and polishes the chalices, candlesticks, thuribles (incense holders) and launders the linens, albs and cottas used by the Clergy and Altar Servers at Mass. Recently, we've noticed that our vessels don't shine as they should and our vestments are not as "glistening" (to use the old definition) white as they could be. Both Women AND Men are invited to consider enrolling in the Altar Guild and help make St. Timothy's (literally) shine! Please see Father Stainbrook for more information.

- ❑ The annual St. Timothy's All Souls' Day Solemn Requiem Mass is Monday, November 2nd, at 7PM. All Souls Day Remembrance forms are available from the ushers. You may place them in offering basket or mail to the church.
- ❑ The Autumn Season is also a good time to recruit more Altar Servers. We welcome our new servers, Tanner Whitham and Tom Acker, but we can always use more! Please see Acolyte Master, Chris Christian if you can assist.
- ❑ St. Timothy's Holiday Outreach at Union Gospel Mission (UGM) - The UGM has informed us that they only have four senior ladies now (the often neglected group of residents whom we have chosen to support) and don't expect to have any more before Christmas. That means we should have more participation for their "guests". You can bring socks to Mass whenever you want. Judy Grimada will keep them, and take all our donations to the Mission. We need to have them by December 13 so we can get them all packaged and delivered on December 21. If anyone would like to make a bag for one of the senior ladies, let Judy know. Since there are only four, if you would like to bring gifts for a bag to her, she will have bags and put everything in them. Or if you would prefer you can do your own thing and put your bag together yourself.

Donations of money for food can be given to Judy, or Carol Christian, our treasurer at anytime.

In the past we have had good participation with this Holiday Outreach and the Mission is very appreciative of our help. Thank you in advance for your help.
