Twenty First Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Jeremiah 31:7-9

For thus says the Lord: “Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob, and raise shouts for the chief of the nations; proclaim, give praise, and say, ‘The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel.’ Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who is in travail, together; a great company, they shall return here. With weeping they shall come, and with consolations I will lead them back, I will make them walk by brooks of water, in a straight path in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and E’phraim is my first-born. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6

The People sing the Responses:

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion,
we were like men dreaming.

Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."

The LORD has done great things for us;
we are glad indeed.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;

we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD,
like the torrents in the southern desert.

Those that sow in tears shall reap rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;

we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping,
carrying the seed to be sown,
They shall come back rejoicing,
carrying their sheaves.

R. The Lord has done great things for us;

we are filled with joy.

Hebrews 5:1-6

For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness. Because of this he is bound to offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not take the honor upon himself, but he is called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him, "Thou art my Son, today I have begotten thee"; as he says also in another place, "Thou art a priest for ever, after the order of Melchiz'edek." Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

And they came to Jericho; and as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great multitude, Bartimae'us, a blind beggar, the son of Timae'us, was sitting by the roadside. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" And Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; rise, he is calling you." And throwing off his mantle he sprang up and came to Jesus. And Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Master, let me receive my sight." And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.

Announcements

- ❑ Our organist, Rebecca Pope is away this week to attend the funeral of her beloved stepfather Al. She should be back with us next Sunday. We welcome parishioner David Conley as our guest organist this afternoon. Please keep Rebecca and her family in prayer, and be sure to greet and thank David after the mass today.
- ❑ It isn't too late to help out with the cost of the New Missal for the Ordinariate! The Ordinariate Chancery has announced the exciting news that the new Ordinariate Missal has been approved by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, and will be printed soon. Beginning the First Sunday in Advent, all Ordinariate Communities are required to use this Missal for all Masses. (Rather than the loose leaf binders we have been using). It's a beautiful tome, (as our display in the back of the church illustrates) but very expensive (300 English pounds which is about $500, plus shipping). We are Continuing to take special collections today toward the cost of our new Missal, and we invite any of our Friends of St. Timothy's friends who would like to contribute toward this compulsory addition (indeed, edition!) Please make your checks out to our host parish, St. Mary's Church, and write "Missal" in the memo line). St. Timothy's is very grateful for your support! Special donation envelopes are available from the ushers.

- ❑ The Autumn Season is a time to reinstitute our St. Timothy's Altar Guild. This important Guild cleans and polishes the chalices, candlesticks, thuribles (incense holders) and launders the linens, albs and cottas used by the Clergy and Altar Servers at Mass. Recently, we've noticed that our vessels don't shine as they should and our vestments are not as "glistening" (to use the old definition) white as they could be. Both Women AND Men are invited to consider enrolling in the Altar Guild and help make St. Timothy's (literally) shine! Please see Father Stainbrook for more information.

- ❑ The annual St. Timothy's All Souls' Day Solemn Requiem Mass is Monday, November 2nd, at 7PM. Following mass a festive reception will be held in the cafeteria. All Souls Day Remembrance forms are available from the ushers. You may place them in offering basket or mail to the church.
- ❑ The Autumn Season is also a good time to recruit more Altar Servers. We welcome our new servers, Tanner Whitham and Tom Acker, but we can always use more! Please see Acolyte Master, Chris Christian if you can assist.
- ❑ St. Timothy's Holiday Outreach at Union Gospel Mission (UGM) - The UGM has informed us that they only have four senior ladies now (the often neglected group of residents whom we have chosen to support) and don't expect to have any more before Christmas. That means we should have more participation for their "guests". You can bring socks to Mass whenever you want. Judy Grimada will keep them, and take all our donations to the Mission. We need to have them by December 13 so we can get them all packaged and delivered on December 21. If anyone would like to make a bag for one of the senior ladies, let Judy know. Since there are only four, if you would like to bring gifts for a bag to her, she will have bags and put everything in them. Or if you would prefer you can do your own thing and put your bag together yourself.

Donations of money for food can be given to Judy, or Carol Christian, our treasurer at anytime.

In the past we have had good participation with this Holiday Outreach and the Mission is very appreciative of our help. Thank you in advance for your help.

Judy Grimada, St. Timothy's Outreach Coordinator
