The Epistle: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

But as to the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When people say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as travail comes upon a woman with child, and there will be no escape. But you are not in darkness, brethren, for that day to surprise you like a thief. For you are all sons of light and sons of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

"For it will be as when a man going on a journey called his servants and entrusted to them his property; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them; and he made five talents more. So also, he who had the two talents made two talents more. But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.' And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents; here I have made two talents more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much; enter into the joy of your master.' He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not winnow; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master answered him, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sowed, and gather where I have not winnowed? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. For to every one who has will more be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness; there men will weep and gnash their teeth.'

Announcements

- ❑ From the Catholic Church Women at St. Timothy's: It's time for the annual St. Timothy's Chili Cook Off. At the last parish council meeting, it was decided that the Chili Cook Off will be held on December 7 (our regular 1st Sunday of the month potluck day.) We need to get started with entrants for cook off. This year the theme will be "St. Nicholas - The Real Santa Claus" People who want to enter to make chili, please contact event coordinator Judy Grimada. The entry fee this year will be $7.50 (this helps to pay for trophies). As usual, there will be a prize for the best theme/decoration chili/table as well as the first place trophy for the best chili. Members of the Catholic Church Women should provide desserts. Those willing to make a dessert please let Judy know.
- ❑ Also it is getting close to time for our thanksgiving gift of food to the Union Gospel Mission. Those wishing to help, please see Judy or Marshelle Langston (outreach coordinator).

Parish Personals:

We offer prayers for Judy Grimada's sister, Dena, who passed away in California this week. A private funeral is planned for later in the week. Please keep Judy and all her family in prayer.

Long time parishioner Margaret Hull entered Life Eternal on Tuesday, November 11th. Her funeral was on Saturday. Margaret was a much beloved, out spoken and very generous personage at St. Timothy's until her increasing frailties prevented her regular attendance at Mass.

We also announce with sadness the death of Paul Brodeur on Wednesday. Paul was the beloved son of deceased (and greatly missed) parishioner, Mary Brodeur.

Paul, a regular fixture at the 8 o'clock mass at our former campus, was known as a "gentle giant" who loved the Lord, the Catholic Faith, and most particularly the people at St. Timothy's church. Sadly, the acceleration of dementia (an affliction with which he struggled for several years) prevented him from officially converting to the Catholic Church with the rest of the congregation in 2012, but we are confident that this loving soul will be received in Paradise. Father Stainbrook will conduct a graveside service next Thursday at 2 p.m. at Mt. Olivet.

Rest Eternal Grant Unto Them, O Lord and May Light Perpetual Shine Upon Them.
