Twenty Third Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

So he arose and went to Zar'epath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks; and he called to her and said, "Bring me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink." And as she was going to bring it, he called to her and said, "Bring me a morsel of bread in your hand." And she said, "As the Lord your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of meal in a jar, and a little oil in a cruse; and now, I am gathering a couple of sticks, that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and die." And Eli'jah said to her, "Fear not; go and do as you have said; but first make me a little cake of it and bring it to me, and afterward make for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel, 'The jar of meal shall not be spent, and the cruse of oil shall not fail, until the day that the Lord sends rain upon the earth.'" And she went and did as Eli'jah said; and she, and he, and her household ate for many days. The jar of meal was not spent, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord which he spoke by Eli'jah.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

The LORD keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.

The LORD sets captives free.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

The LORD gives sight to the blind.

The LORD raises up those who were bowed down;
the LORD loves the just.

The LORD protects strangers.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.

The LORD shall reign forever;
your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

Hebrews 9:24-28

For Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the Holy Place yearly with blood not his own; for then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after that comes judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

And in his teaching he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to go about in long robes, and to have salutations in the market places and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, who devour widows’ houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.” And he sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the multitude putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came, and put in two copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him, and said to them, “Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.” Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ St. Timothy's Catholic Church -- 60 Years and still going strong! The month of November 2015 marks the 60th Anniversary of our Church --- And we've started our new decade with tremendous celebrations. A record number of six baptisms at one mass were celebrated on All Saints ' Day (last Sunday, Nov 1st). The baptisms were conducted using the Ordinariate's new traditional rite in the "Divine Worship: Occasional Services" book. We joyfully welcome these six valiant souls: Jenna, Deandre, Emily, Aiden, Trinity and Donald Wesley (ranging from ages five through 13), who are now eager new soldiers of Christ.
- ❑ November Is Pledge Month At St. Timothy's - Beginning today, the familiar St. Timothy's pledge cards are available in the narthex. We're beginning our 6th decade this month and are excited about our future, but we need everyone's help! We have no other income than the pledges and offerings so generously given by our parishioners and Friends of St. Timothy's. We are able to pay the salaries of the priest and organist, the telephone and the computer, printing the leaflets and purchasing altar and office supplies. We will need to expand these expenses in 2016 to begin paying the Cathredaticum tax to the Ordinariate Chancery, and also to establish a building fund for our future home. Won't you please prayerfully consider how you can contribute to this special and unique congregation (sixty years and still going strong!) so that we can grow in the way God wishes for us? St. Timothy's thanks YOU for your support.
- ❑ Advent is traditionally a time of quiet reflection for Catholics. The three Ordinariate Communities in our Diocese (St. Timothy's, St. Mary the Virgin, and St. John Vianney) and our new community in Dennison (St. Michael's) will be hosting an Advent Quiet Day on Saturday December 5th at St. Mary the Virgin Church in Arlington. Why not plan to take a break from the busy hustle and bustle of the pre Christmas season and keep a quiet and reflective day with you fellow Catholics. (Invite your friends!)

Please RSVP with St. Mary the Virgin by contacting,
Bella Kaplan - Parish Secretary
1408 North Davis Drive
Arlington, TX 76012
(817) 460-2278.

- ❑ A note of thanks to everyone who helped with the All Souls' reception. I thought it was a great success. It seemed like a good time was had by all. Also, a reminder about the Christmas outreach to the Union Gospel Mission. We need crew sox, rain ponchos, hard Christmas candy, small toys suitable for a grown up, samples of lotion, anything else you can think of that would be suitable for a person who lives out of a back pack. All these things must be small enough to fit in brown lunch sacks. Small Christmas bows can also be used. I have some but not enough. If you don't want to shop, you can make donation and I will shop for you. We need to have all the items by December 13th so I can get them all together by December 21st. That is the day I will deliver everything to the mission. We will not try to donate food to the Mission this year. I don't think we will have money for that. Thank you for your generosity.

Judy Grimada, St. Timothy's Outreach Coordinator

As a reminder, on Advent 1, November 29, all Ordinariate churches all over the world will begin using the new Missals. Will this change our mass? NO! The Mass will remain as it has since we became Catholic in 2012; however, at the direction of the Chancery, this will eliminate our pew booklets. With the publication of the Divine Worship Missal, the Ordinariates' form of the one, holy Mass will be copyrighted. Therefore, we will no longer be permitted to publish every word that is spoken or sung during our worship. Those of you who regularly attend Solemn Mass at St. Timothy's know that heretofore we have made participation in the liturgy very "user-friendly" by including in our Mass booklet almost everything that's said at Mass. What will be published starting Advent 1 will be a modified version of the service leaflet/bulletin we currently use. The prayers that the celebrant offers by himself on behalf of the worshipers will not be printed. There is at the moment no Peoples Missal/prayer book available for us to offer Divine Worship devotions privately. For further explanation, please contact the Vicar General's Office at the Chancery in Houston.
