3rd Sunday after Trinity

1st Reading: Zechariah 9:9,10

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on an ass, on a colt the foal of an ass. I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 145:1,2,8-11,13,14

The People sing the Responses:

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,

and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.

The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Epistle: Romans 8:9,11-13

But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Any one who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit which dwells in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus declared, "I thank thee, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to babes; yea, Father, for such was thy gracious will. All things have been delivered to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and any one to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ.

Announcements

- ❑ Our Parish Potluck for July is today, following the 2 p.m. Solemn Mass -- Why not plan to round out our Independence Day celebration that weekend with a Family Celebration Luncheon! Father Stainbrook will give a brief presentation on the "State of the Parish" from January-June 2014. Don't miss it!!! Please remember -- the more people who participate in the Potluck, the more fun (and food!) is enjoyed by all!
- ❑ The Catholic Church Women (CCW) Summer Salad Luncheon is Sunday, August 3rd. We will have a 50/50 raffle and also some fun prizes to raffle off. There will also be a Silent Auction and, as always, we will have door prizes. The ladies are thinking of a Hawaiian/Islander theme. Any suggestions will be appreciated. Additional Volunteers are needed! Please see Coordinator Judy Grimada with suggestions or if you can volunteer to help!
- ❑ Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference (DCYC) Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference - July 11-13, 2014. The Annual Diocesan Catholic Youth Conference (DCYC) is a dynamic weekend held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel at DFW Airport. This conference offers youth a variety of exciting opportunities such as: Daily Mass, keynote presentations from nationally known speakers, workshops to deepen faith and build life skills, a music ministry pre-conference, Adoration, hands on activities, service experiences, games, dancing and more...with a thousand other Catholic youth! This year's theme is "Transform me." Don't miss out on this amazing opportunity!
- ❑ Marriage Encounter is a unique way for married couples to deepen their relationship. Whether you've been married one year or 50, Marriage Encounter can put a breath of fresh air into your marriage. The next "commuter" weekend will be on July 19 and 20 at St. Andrew's Catholic Church in Ft. Worth. Closing service by Bishop Michael Olson. For more information or to register online visit www.northtexasmariageencounter.org.
- ❑ If you read the bulletin from our host parish this week, you will see that the dreaded "Summer Slump" in collections began for both our congregations (indeed for many churches all over the country) last week. (St. Mary's bulletin is available in the narthex.) Our hard working treasurers, Chris and Carol Christian, have reminded us that even when we take a summer vacation, our bills don't! Please, please, make every effort to keep your contribution steady during the long green Sundays in summer. As always, St. Timothy's thanks you for your support!

Happy 4th of July! May Our Lady of America Continue to Protect and Guide our One Nation Under God!

A movement of great consequence has commenced for a definite response by the United States Catholic Bishops in response to private revelations which long ago received official Church recognition as having occurred in the United States. The revelations included apparitions of Our Lord and St. Joseph, St. Gabriel and St. Michael, and also apparitions of The Blessed Virgin Mary as "Our Lady of America" to Sister Mary Ephrem (Mildred Neuzil), of the Precious Blood Sisters (1933-1979). Sister Mary Ephrem said she was asked by The Blessed Virgin Mary to draw a picture according to the vision of Our Lady of America and have a statue constructed and placed after a solemn procession into the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, in Washington, D.C.. The Blessed Virgin Mary wishes to be honored in the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at Washington D.C. as Our Lady of America. Our Lady says that if this is done, the United States of America would turn back toward morality and the shrine would become a place of "wonders."

While Auxiliary Bishop of Cincinnati, Monsignor Paul F. Leibold formally approved the design for the "Our Lady of America Medal" directed the Archdiocese of Cincinnati to pay for medals of Our Lady of America which he had ordered; and, approved the medal maker, Cyril Daleiden & Sons of Chicago, having the first leaflet explaining the devotion to Our Lady of America printed, also at the expense of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

In addition, before dying Bishop Leibold had two large plaques depicting Our Lady of America made, hanging one in the Cincinnati Catholic Chancery. The Monsignor also approved the printing of the private revelation messages of Sister Mary Ephrem. He served as Sister Mary Ephrem's spiritual director for many years.

"Tell the bishops of the United States, my loyal sons, of my desires and how I wish them to be carried out." The Blessed Virgin Mary told Sister Mary Ephrem, who saw Her with a white veil reaching almost to Her waist and a mantle and robe of pure white with no decoration. An oblong brooch or clasp held the ends of the mantle together at the top. It was all gold, as was the high and brilliant crown she wore. Her hair and eyes seemed medium brown. Her feet were bare, but not always visible, sometimes covered by the moving clouds on which she stood. Often she smiled and revealed a heart encircled by roses that sent forth flames of fire. "I am Our Lady of America," said The Blessed Virgin. "I desire that my children honor me, especially by the purity of their lives." At times light twinkled from Mary's hair, wrote Sister Mary Ephrem, and seemed to radiate from within her. Sister Mary Ephrem died on January 10, 2000 at the age of 83.
