Fourth Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Because God did not me death, and he does not delight in the death of the living. For he created all things that they might exist, and the generative forces of the world are wholesome, and there is no destructive poison in them; and the dominion of Hades is not on earth. For righteousness is immortal. for God created man for incorruption, and made him in the image of his own eternity, but through the devil's envy death entered the world, and those who belong to his party experience it. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13

The People sing the Responses:

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the response, and the second staff contains the melody for the second line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

I will praise you, Lord,
for you have res - cued me.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld;
you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones,
and give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger lasts but a moment;
a lifetime, his good will.

At nightfall, weeping enters in,
but with the dawn, rejoicing.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, O LORD, and have pity on me;

O LORD, be my helper.

You changed my mourning into dancing;

O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

The Epistle: 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Now as you excel in everything—in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in your love for us—see that you excel in this gracious work also. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality. As it is written, “He who gathered much had nothing over, and he who gathered little had no lack.”

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Mark 5:21-24, 35B-43

And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered about him; and he was beside the sea. Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Ja'irus by name; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, and besought him, saying, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” And he went with him. Why trouble the Teacher any further?” But ignoring what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. When they came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, he saw a tumult, and people weeping and wailing loudly. And when he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a tumult and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. Taking her by the hand he said to her, “Tal’itha cu’mi”; which means, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.” And immediately the girl got up and walked; for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were overcome with amazement. And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ The Wednesday Morning Mass and Bible Study will be taking a summertime break from July 2nd through July 30th. Wednesday Mass at 9:30 and the Bible Class will resume on Wednesday August 6th - Feast of the Transfiguration.
- ❑ Father Stainbrook will be taking some weekdays off this month to oversee some restoration and repair projects at home. The Sunday Mass will continue each week at 2 pm. We will have a Sung Mass during the summer, and hope to resume Solemn Mass next autumn.
- ❑ From our Treasurer: We wish, indeed we need to respectfully remind all of our parishioners that even when you take a vacation, our bills (salaries, supplies, equipment) do not. Please make every effort to keep your pledge current or even increase it if possible during these months when several of our families are on their vacations.
- ❑ The Catholic Church Women (CCW) has traditionally hosted a summer salad luncheon in July or August . Since the first Sunday in July is the 6th (and part of the Independence day Long Weekend) we will schedule it on the first Sunday in August (which would be regular potluck Sunday). It has always been a good fundraiser, but it is a lot of work, and takes everyone to make it a success. Please contact Judy Grimada at judygrimada@att.net to find out how to participate. PLEASE NOTE: There will be NO July Potluck this year because of the aforementioned Holiday weekend.
- ❑ Welcome New Parishioners: Eli Strange and his daughter Caroline: Brian and Sarah Codlington and their son, Francis: Teresa and Don Whitt, and Gimarie and Abelino Menchaca (and children Abelino, Ariana, Diego, Natalia, Marco, Estefano and newborn Catalina). We're glad you're a part of the saint timothy's family!
- ❑ Good News from Our Friends at the Fort Worth Latin Mass Society! His Excellency Bishop Olson made a surprise visit to the 5:30pm Latin Mass last Sunday (see photo) to officially announce the establishment of our new parish! Deo Gratias ! If can keep our numbers up -- both attendance and finance -- one day we might have a similar surprise visit at St. Timothy's!

Welcome Visitor

We are glad you chose to worship with us today. We trust that your visit here was spiritually enriching and that you were warmly received. Please come again.
