6th Sunday after Trinity

1st Reading: 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you." And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king in place of David my father, although I am but a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people whom thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered or counted for multitude. Give thy servant therefore an understanding mind to govern thy people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to govern this thy great people?" It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. And God said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, behold, I now do according to your word. Behold, I give you a wise and discerning mind, so that none like you has been before you and none like you shall arise after you. Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 119: 57, 72, 76, 77, 127-130

The People sing the Responses:

R. Lord, I love your commands.

I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.

The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Let your kindness comfort me
according to your promise to your servants.
Let your compassion come to me that I may live,

for your law is my delight.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

For I love your command
more than gold, however fine.

For in all your precepts I go forward;
every false way I hate.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Wonderful are your decrees;
therefore I observe them.

The revelation of your words sheds light,
giving understanding to the simple.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

The Epistle: Romans 8: 28-30

We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified. Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 13: 44-52

"The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net which was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind; when it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into vessels but threw away the bad. So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous, and throw them into the furnace of fire; there men will weep and gnash their teeth. Have you understood all this?" They said to him, "Yes." And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Announcements

- ❑ The Catholic Church Women (CCW) Summer Salad Luncheon is Sunday, August 3rd. The luncheons will be $5 for adults, $3 for Children ages 4 through 12 and Free for Children under three years old. The Luncheon will feature a 50/50 raffle and also some fun

- prizes to raffle off. There will also be another popular Silent Auction. As always, we will have many fun door prizes. This year, the ladies have decided upon a Hawaiian/Islander theme. Additional Volunteers are needed! All women of St. Timothy's are automatically members of the Catholic Church Women -- Please see Coordinator Judy Grimada with suggestions or if you can volunteer to help!
- ❑ It's time to update our Prayer List. Last week we started with a clean slate. Please contact our Prayer List Coordinator, Ann Kleinert at 817-536-6682 to put names on the list. (If you tell Father Stainbrook on Sunday at the door, he's liable to forget, so please contact Ann!)
 - ❑ This time of year, you will see that the dreaded "Summer Slump" in collections has begun for both our congregation and St. Mary's (indeed for many churches all over the country). Our hard working treasurers, Chris and Carol Christian, have reminded us that even when we take a summer vacation, our bills don't! Please, please, make every effort to keep your contribution steady during the long green Sundays in summer. As always, St. Timothy's thanks you for your support!

Bishop Olson has written a letter for the Diocese of Fort Worth about the crisis at our border regarding the influx unaccompanied immigrant minors, which we commend to all parishioners. Please search your hearts and see how you can respond to His Excellency's letter. A copy of the letter is available from the ushers.

Also, in a move which will profoundly impact the Church (both Catholic and Protestant) throughout the world, the General Synod of the Church of England has voted to approve women bishops for the Anglican Church in England. This is a major blow to our many Anglo Catholic friends in the Church of England (and elsewhere, as what happens in England impacts Anglicans around the world) and we hold them in our prayers at this time.

As reported in another English newspaper. The Catholic Herald, the English Ordinariate (Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham) is planning an Exploration Day "Called To Be One" in the fall for Anglo Catholics who are now wondering about their future (as this action of the General Synod will irrefutably and irrevocably change the very nature of ministers in the "Mother Church" of Anglicanism) and wanting to learn more about the Ordinariate option -- and it may well be that our Personal Ordinariate of the Chair of St. Peter may plan one (or more) of these "Exploration Days" as well. If so, we expect St. Timothy's, as one of the first Congregations to become Roman Catholic as a congregation, via the Ordinariate, to take a leading role, to share our story, and to welcome others into the Catholic Church - - we will know more soon from the Chancery in Houston, and we hope that all of our parishioners will be eager to assist in sharing our story about our journey together.

In the meantime, we continue as we always have, worshiping God at Mass, and enjoying each others fellowship throughout these "lazy hazy days of summer" and beyond, and, as always, thankful to God for His many blessings to our congregation.
