7th Sunday after Trinity

1st Reading: Isaiah 55: 1-3

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Harken diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in fatness. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.

Response: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 145:8-8, 15-16, 17-18

The People sing the Responses:

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all and compassionate toward all his works.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;

you open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.
The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The Epistle: Romans 8:35, 37-39

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a lonely place apart. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. As he went ashore he saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ The Catholic Church Women (CCW) Summer Salad Luncheon is today. The luncheons will be $5 for adults, $3 for Children ages 4 through 12 and Free for Children under three years old. The Luncheon will feature a 50/50 raffle and also some fun prizes to raffle off.

There will also be another popular Silent Auction. As always, we will have many fun door prizes. This year, the ladies have decided upon a Hawaiian/Islander theme. Many thanks to Coordinator Judy Grimada.

- ❑ It's time to update our Prayer List. Last week we started with a clean slate. Please contact our Prayer List Coordinator, Ann Kleinert at 817-536-6682 to put names on the list. (If you tell Father Stainbrook on Sunday at the door, he's liable to forget, so please contact Ann!)
- ❑ This time of year, you will see that the dreaded "Summer Slump" in collections has begun for both our congregation and St. Mary's (indeed for many churches all over the country). Our hard working treasurers, Chris and Carol Christian, have reminded us that even when we take a summer vacation, our bills don't! Please, please, make every effort to keep your contribution steady during the long green Sundays in summer. As always, St. Timothy's thanks you for your support!

- ❑ This year the Feast of the Assumption is Friday, August 15th. St. Timothy's will offer a Low Mass (Ordinarie rite) at Noon in the Rectory Chapel for our observance of the Feast of the Assumption. St. Mary's will offer their masses at Noon and 7 p.m. in the Church

- ❑ Priest Care Fund Special Collection. Care for Those Who Care for Us. Contributions to the annual Priest Care Fund Special Collection on August 2-3, 2014, will help support the expenses of medical and long-term care for our retired and infirmed priests. These expenses are in addition to what is covered by their insurance, income benefits or personal resources. Please give generously.
- ❑ Bishop's 10th Annual Catholic Respect Life Gala. Please make plans to join us on Saturday, September 27, 2014 for the Bishop's 10th Annual Catholic Respect Life Gala which will be held at the Omni Fort Worth Hotel in downtown Fort Worth. This year's keynote speaker will be Bishop Michael F. Olson, S.T.D. M.A. The evening begins with Check-in and Silent Auction at 6:00 p.m. Doors Open at 7:00 p.m. The cost for individual registration is $90 ($100 after deadline or at the door). The deadline for all online registrations is September 17, 2014 at 5:00 p.m. Please come support and celebrate this worthy cause.
- ❑ Back When we were Episcopalians at our old Mitchell Blvd. campus, our congregation was very involved with the neighborhood "CrimeWatch", "Code Blue" and "Citizens on Patrol" program. The Oaklawn/Glenn Garden CrimeWatch used to meet the first Thursday evening of every month in our Parish Hall (they now meet at a local Pentecostal Church on Wichita Street) and Citizens on Patrol had their training sessions twice a year on Saturday mornings after the 9:30 Mass. It was a very effective outreach to the neighborhood, and one for which St. Timothy's was well known in the local community (It's how your Pastor got to meet three mayors of Fort Worth in succession, and why we had such an excellent working relationship with our local City Councilwoman) and I still get invitations to special events and dinners from our longtime friends from this group. Recently St. Timothy's received an invitation for volunteers to join Citizens on Patrol groups.

From Madelyn Gibbs, Fort Worth Neighborhood Education Office

Hi To All, The new, streamlined, Fort Worth Citizens on Patrol training is scheduled for Aug. 16 th, 8 am -2 pm at the Police and Fire Academy, 1000 Calvert St. If you're interested in being part of this crime-detering team, apply to the Police Department's Community Services Division by Aug. 11.
