Ninth Sunday after Trinity ~ Year B

1st Reading: Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15

And the whole congregation of the people of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness, and said to them, “Would that we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate bread to the full; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.” Then the Lord said to Moses, “Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a day’s portion every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law or not. “I have heard the murmurings of the people of Israel; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread; then you shall know that I am the Lord your God.’” In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning dew lay round about the camp. And when the dew had gone up, there was on the face of the wilderness a fine, flake-like thing, fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When the people of Israel saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, “It is the bread which the Lord has given you to eat.

Response: Thanks be to God.

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

What we have heard and know,
and what our fathers have declared to us,
We will declare to the generation to come the glorious deeds of the Lord and his strength and the wonders that he wrought.

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

He commanded the skies above
and opened the doors of heaven;

he rained manna upon them for food
and gave them heavenly bread.

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

Man ate the bread of angels,
food he sent them in abundance.

And he brought them to his holy land,
to the mountains his right hand had won.

R. The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

The Epistle: Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

Now this I affirm and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds; You did not so learn Christ!— assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. Put off your old nature which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new nature, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

Response: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel: John 6:24-35

So when the people saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Caper'na-um, seeking Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man will give to you; for on him has God the Father set his seal." Then they said to him, "What must we do, to be doing the works of God?" Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." So they said to him, "Then what sign do you do, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you perform? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" Jesus then said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven, and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Lord, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall not hunger, and he who believes in me shall never thirst.

Response: Praise be to Thee O Christ

Announcements

- ❑ Our organist, Rebecca Pope, is off today. Rebecca underwent surgery for her back last week, and is recuperating at home. She would appreciate the prayers of her friends at St. Timothy's. Please again welcome our old friend, Tomi Godbee, back to Saint Timothy's today as she substitutes for Rebecca.
- ❑ As many of our people from St. Timothy's are on vacation this month, we are reminded that as Catholics, we are unable to take communion in Protestant services (including Anglican/Episcopalian ones), even if their clergy ask us to do so. It is best to remain in your seats and pray for authentic Christian unity if you find yourself in one of their churches.

Fort Worth Latin Mass Society Gets A New Parish -- Fort Worth Bishop Michael Olson has announced that an official apostolate parish for the FSSP is now established in the diocese. Father Karl Pikus and Father Peter Byrne will serve the Fort Worth apostolate. Father Stainbrook was honored to play a small, behind the scenes part in this historic event as he delivered the actual decree to their priest (along with some instructions which had been dropped off earlier that day by the Vicar General) to be read at the Latin Mass at St. Mary's last Sunday (The Fort Worth Latin Mass Community, now St. Benedict's Catholic Church, has their Mass at 5:30 pm following our St. Timothy's one at 2 pm) The new St. Benedict's first day as a parish is August 1st, 2015 A.D. Congratulations to all our friends who love the Extraordinary Form in Fort Worth and who now have their own canonical Personal Parish! Perhaps the next such decree from His Excellency will be about us!
